SAN FRANCISCO POLICE COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENT

The San Francisco Police Commission is seeking community input on the recruitment process for the next San Francisco Chief of Police.

Members of the public are welcome to provide public comment at the Commission's regularly scheduled meetings, submit written materials to the Commission, or email your community input directly to Ralph Andersen & Associates at: Input-SFPC@ralphandersen.com.

The Police Commission has a landing page on its website with all information about the search for the next Chief of Police. Members of the public will find links and PDFs for the Community Input Survey where the public can give input on the selection process. To access the surveys, please visit the commission website at https://www.sf.gov/san-francisco-chief-of-police-recruitment

In addition, on behalf of the Commission, the Search Firm of Ralph Andersen & Associates has coordinated eight (8) community events where no more than three of the Commissioners will be in attendance to listen to members of the public and receive insight into the qualities and characteristics sought in the next Chief of Police. Each meeting will be facilitated by Chief Daniel Hahn (retired). Chief Hahn is a Senior Consultant with Ralph Andersen & Associates and a member of the Search Team conducting the recruitment process for the new Chief of Police.

No more than three of the Commissioners will attend each of the events, which are scheduled for the following dates, at the following locations:

1. Tuesday, August 19, 2025, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., at the Noe Valley Sally Brunn Branch Library, 451 Jersey Street, San Francisco, CA 94114
