Museum Updates

Legion of Honor 100, November 2024 – November 2025

The Legion of Honor's 100th year was celebrated with a weekend of programming and events which brought 6,000 visitors to the museum on Saturday, November 9. Admission to the museum and to the Mary Cassatt exhibition were free of charge on November 9 and 10 thanks to a generous donation by Bank of America. A ceremony to recognize the Legion of Honor's original dedication to the Californians who died in World War I was held on November 11.

Exhibitions Updates

Leilah Babirye: We Have a History: June 22, 2024 – October 26, 2025

Dialogue between contemporary Ugandan artist Leilah Babirye's mixed media sculptures and our permanent collection of African art.

About Place: Bay Area Artists from the Svane Gift: August 10, 2024 – November 30, 2025

Explores how ten Bay Area artists see themselves in relation to their environments. Second exhibition in a series supported by a generous donation from the Svane Family Foundation.

Mary Cassatt at Work: October 5, 2024–January 26, 2025

Brings together a cadre of nearly 100 works.

The last major North American retrospective of the work took place a generation ago, and so today, as we reevaluate the contributions of women artists across centuries and cultures

Tamara de Lempicka: October 12, 2024–February 9, 2025

Featuring a wide range of rarely seen paintings and drawings by the artist, our exhibition will be the first major museum retrospective of Lempicka in the country.

Tamara de Lempicka will travel to the Museum of Fine Arts Houston next.

Art and War in the Renaissance: The Battle of Pavia Tapestries: October 19, 2024 – January 12, 2025

Recently closed, this exhibition brought the magnificence of the Renaissance courts, and the drama of their battlefields front and center for Bay Area residents.

A special two-day symposium with experts from the Louvre, the Met, and beyond closed out the exhibition.

Paul McCartney Photographs 1963–64: Eyes of the Storm: March 1 – October 5, 2025

Exhibition will showcase 250 recently unearthed personal photographs by Sir Paul McCartney himself, and will offer a behind-the-scenes look at the meteoric rise of the world's most celebrated band.

Wayne Thiebaud: Art Comes from Art: March 22, 2025 – August 17, 2025

The exhibition will feature nearly sixty of the late, great Bay Area artist's appropriations and reinterpretations of old and new European and American artworks.

It will include an immersive, salon-style gallery featuring about forty of Thiebaud's copies after old and new masters spanning from Andrea Mantegna to Édouard Manet to Giorgio Morandi.

Isaac Julien: April 12, 2025 – July 27, 2025

Celebrated for his poetic yet astutely political films and video installations which reflect on the intersection of power, politics, and personal experience through the lens of identity, race and sexuality and is one of the world's leading contemporary artists. This retrospective will be his first in the United States, will present nine major video installations made between 2000 and 2025

Education Update

FY24: 256,877 people served by our education programs

FY25: mid-year numbers - 108,005 people served by our education programs in 6 months

- Public programs: 85,273
- School and youth total: 22,732
- SF school and youth: 15,289

Building Updates

de Young is now 20 years old, and the Legion of Honor is 100, and both buildings have significant capital needs.

CFO and our Facilities team are in regular communication with the city about our capital needs.

Museum Concourse Garage Update

The management and ownership of the Music Concourse garage is transferring over to the city at the end of February - the City of San Francisco will assume ownership of the garage with SFMTA managing its operation. As a part of this change work is being done on the equipment on the de Young side of the garage and is expected to conclude by Monday, February 3.

Mayor Lurie's Administration

Daniel Lurie's swearing in ceremony took place on Wednesday, January 8, 2025 and was attended by Director Campbell.

In Mayor Lurie's first department head meeting on January 9 he officially shared the directive that he would be asking every city department to propose ongoing, permanent spending reductions of 15% starting in FY25-26.

Mayor Lurie's deputies are holding regular meetings with arts leaders to align on how we will tackle these challenges together.

Ned Segal was appointed Chief of Housing and Economic Development and will be the museums primary point of contact in the Mayor's office.

Budget Hearing Introduction

Today's board meeting serves as the first of two official budget hearings that we do every year; our next budget hearing will take place on February 5.
