FUTURE AGENDA ITEMS

Member Soo initiated discussion on future agenda items.

Discussion from Members Soo, Ortiz, Cuevas, Lozano, and Palmer.

Future agenda items discussed include:

- Training & Professional Development for SDOB Members
- Annual and Monthly Reports
- Community Meeting Follow-up
- Public Defender Update: regarding the impact of contempt proceedings on court access and jail stays.
- Conflicts Counsel Input: A report or weighing in from Conflicts Counsel regarding legal representation issues.

- Community Engagement Strategy: Discussion on strategies to improve mutual communication between the Board and the community.
- Policy & Jail Operations:
 - Strip Searches: A report on current policies and execution of strip searches.
 - Language Access: A report from the Sheriff's Department regarding compliance with the Language Access Ordinance, the use of inmates for translation, and potential needs for more bilingual staff or funding.
- Inquiry to Prisoner Legal Services: Submission of specific questions regarding inmate rights and language access to be answered by the department in a future session.
- Review of Legacy Items: A review of the long list of "pending" policy topics and suggestions collected during President Palmer's term.

PUBLIC COMMENT:

Chief Ramirez expressed a willingness to report on language access issues, acknowledging the challenges of the city's diversity while noting that systems are in place to address them. He invited members to submit specific inquiries in writing, either directly or through the secretary, to ensure comprehensive responses from the appropriate departments.

GENERAL PUBLIC COMMENT

President Palmer commemorated May Day by highlighting its origins in the labor rights struggle and the ongoing fight for dignity. Wearing his prison-issued shoes as a symbol of remembrance, he challenged the city's "sanctuary" status and called for substantive justice for black diaspora. He urged the Board to move beyond political symbolism by ensuring the Oversight Board is fully funded and independent, concluding that true freedom must be demonstrated through accountability and collective action.

ADJOURNMENT

Member Soo adjourned in memory of Andrea Shorter, honoring her two decades of service on the Commission on the Status of Women and her lifelong dedication to LGBTQ rights and juvenile justice.

There being no further business and no objection from any Member, the Board adjourned at the hour of 4:53 p.m.
