Following the discussion, the Board requested that the Sheriff's Office provide proactive updates regarding deputy matters to ensure members are notified internally prior to media reports.

PUBLIC COMMENT:

There was no public comment.

CIVIL GRAND JURY REPORT: SAN FRANCISCO JAILS IN CRISIS

Members Soo, Rosboro, Lozano, Palmer, Cuevas, and Ortiz discussed its response to the Civil Grand Jury report, focusing on jail inspections, overcrowding, and lockdowns related to staffing shortages. Members also requested a presentation from the San Francisco Sheriff's Office on its response to the report.

Members will review and comment on President Palmer's draft response, with the goal of finalizing the Board's response by the September 7, 2026, deadline.

PUBLIC COMMENT:

Jessica Pascoe agreed with remarks by President Palmer regarding jail misuse. She stated that correctional facilities are inappropriately used as sobering centers and holding areas for individuals experiencing mental health crises or substance overdoses. She emphasized that individuals who have not committed violent crimes or caused property damage should be diverted from jail. She concluded by advocating for healthcare-based solutions, noting that jails are unsuitable environments for medical recovery and detoxification.

Member Soo, seconded by Member Ortiz, moved to direct the Board Secretary to distribute President Palmer's draft response to the Civil Grand Jury report to all Board members, with each member to submit their comments to the Board Secretary for compilation, and to authorize the President or Vice President to incorporate the compiled comments into a final draft for Board review and finalization at the next meeting. The motion carried the following vote following public comment:

Ayes: Cuevas, Lozano, Ortiz, Palmer Rosboro, Soo

FUTURE AGENDA ITEMS

Board members Lozano, Ortiz, Soo, Cuevas, and Rosboro discussed future agenda items.

Future agenda items include:

- Election of New Officers
- Mental Health Presentation (Jail Health): Dr. Hillary Kunis regarding mental health services in the jail, rather than a repeat presentation from Dr. Pratt.
- Jail Program Lead Panel: Coordinate inviting 1 or 2 Care Program Lead panel representatives from the jail to speak to the Board. Member Rosboro will assist in compiling and prioritizing a comprehensive speaker list.
- Scheduled Jail Visits: Coordinate upcoming member visits to the jail facility and schedule subsequent report-backs to the Board.

- Good Government Guide & Meeting Protocols: Place the Good Government Guide on the agenda for a 15-minute (or less) discussion to formally acknowledge that all members have reviewed the meeting protocols.
- Civil Conduct & Meeting Management Presentation: Provide a brief presentation or document review regarding Roberts Rules of Order, Board Rules of Order, and protocols for maintaining civil discussion (e.g., addressing the Chair to manage emotional engagements).
- HR Code of Conduct Review: Review the City-adopted HR Code of Conduct that applies to city employees, commissioners, and board members to determine if it should be formally embedded into the Board's rules.
- Board Rules of Order Amendments: Review of potential future amendments to the Board's Rules of Order (noting that any amendment requires a supermajority of 5 votes).
- Board Member Removal for Cause Guidelines: Discuss a more precise definition for member removal for cause (addressing issues like excessive absences or uncivil conduct) to prevent the policy from becoming overly broad or politicized.
- Crowding Committee Inquiry: Request the Sheriff to attend a future meeting to explain why the Crowding Committee has not been convened, particularly in light of the Board's required response to the Grand Jury.
- RESET Center Update: Follow up on the status of the RESET Center utilizing the statistical data recently received via email.
- Annual Priority Workplan: Draft and review a comprehensive, structured priority plan mapping out subsections and goals for the Board (proposed timeframe spans from August to December, or a full rolling year from August to August).

PUBLIC COMMENT:

There was no public comment.

GENERAL PUBLIC COMMENT

There was no general public comment.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business and no objection from any Member, the Board adjourned at the hour of 5:00 p.m.
