To Whom It May Concern,

I've been a member of the Street Artist Program (currently called the Art Vendor Program) since 2011. This program is a vital lifeline to so many talented artists and a true gem of a program. It has lifted so many artists up, it is an artist incubator program and quite frankly a real lifeline for so many in the program.

The market at Justin Herman Plaza is an unknown gem in the city. The whole program offers original art in areas largely devoid of shopping options, especially these days. This program is the answer to reclaiming the artistic roots of the city. This program is its remnant and must be preserved.

Thank you,
Julian Meyer
