Hello, I am writing in favor of keeping the animal commission together. Over our 30yrs in animal rescue the only voice we have had to make our concerns known re: issues involving responsible care and accountability of the cat and dog community is thru this commission . Existing SFACC is constantly complaining about not being able to handle what is on their plate as is. This will only lead to more pain and suffering in the animal community Please consider one of the least wasteful outlets we have to make change. Thank-you ! Robert & Sylvia Shipman
