Dear Members of the Commission Streamlining Task Force,

Please retain the Commission of Animal Control and Welfare. Animals cannot communicate in the human language, and thus cannot speak for themselves regarding their grievances, concerns, ideas, suggestions and recommendations on their care, welfare and treatment to policymakers and lawmakers.

With the Commission of Animal Control and Welfare and its hearings, issues regarding animals' well-being can be raised, voiced, discussed and recommended in a transparent and public manner by community members and members of the Commission.

Please keep the vital Commission of Animal Control and Welfare so that we can continue to be a truly compassionate community and city.

Sincerely,

Irene Nishimura
San Francisco resident
