3. Approval of Previous Meeting Minutes

The March 15, 2026 SFEC Regular Meeting Minutes were approved by the Commission by general consensus.

4. Director's Reports and Communications

Director Arntz provided updates on preparation for both the June and November elections, expecting an estimated 525,000 ballots to drop on April 30, with early voting beginning on May 4 at City Hall. He answered Commissioners' questions regarding potential budget impact if a large number of measures qualify for the November ballot, and whether there has been an increase in misinformation in recent months, as well as described a tool called Sprout Social that the department uses to monitor discussion trends around local elections and voting on social media platforms.

There was no public comment.

5. June 2026 Election Plan and Employee Waiver Approval

Director Arntz provided an overview of what information is included in the election plan. He also explained that the waiver allows City employees to assist the department in the election should the department need additional support. They are not foreseeing any need for the June election, but it's a standard matter of process and planning.

He provided additional information about the department's use of Sprout Social as both a monitoring tool and an efficiency tool to ensure consistent messaging across the department's social media posts. He also provided additional information about how the department communicates and coordinates with other City departments to ensure election security.

Director Arntz also shared that there have not been challenges implementing Vietnamese services this year because of their advance planning, as well as providing more information about how they support other language access needs.

The Director share background on waivers and why this is a request that must be made according to the City charter.
