Museums updates were given beginning with the exhibition program. All exhibitions have been receiving strong media attention. Work is going on to update the Native American galleries. In the fall we look forward to Art of Manga, opening in September 2025 at the de Young and Manet & Morisot, opening in October 2025 at the Legion of Honor.

Free Saturdays continue to drive strong attendance. Since the program's launch in 2019, it has welcomed over 714,000 visitors, including 125,000 this fiscal year.

de Youngsters Day out had a record turnout with 7,700+ visitors. Notable guests included Mayor Lurie, Senator Weiner, and other SF officials.

The Education program served approximately 225,000 visitors of all ages and abilities. Programs include public, school, and family engagement, as well as interpretive work to enhance accessibility. Contributions include gallery didactics, guided tours, and in-person facilitation. Education launched a new collection of audio and digital tours available in Spanish, Mandarin, Cantonese, and English.

Jason Seifer is in regular communication with the City regarding capital needs and priorities. Through City funding the museums are currently working on Building Management System (BMS) Upgrades, full rebuild of Chiller 3 at the Legion of Honor and a rebuild of on the Cooling Towers at the de Young. Gratitude was expressed for the City's continued support and partnership in maintaining the integrity of both museum facilities.

The City's budget process is ongoing. Efforts are underway to identify cost-saving measures and trim the budget where possible. Jason Seifer, CFO will present the latest budget update.

Report of the CFO - Jason Seifer, Chief Financial and Administrative Officer

Mr. Seifer reported that the City budget process is still in progress. The City continues to face a two-year deficit projection of $876M. The museums are being asked to implement Mandatory reductions: FY26 15% ($3.3M) and FY27 15% ($3.3M). To reach this target reduction the museums have proposed a reduced security headcount of 1 Manager and 19 Guard Positions and a reduced operational headcount of 1 HR Analyst, 1 Stationary Engineer, 1 Museum Registrar, 1 Admission Attendant.

Mr. Seifer then gave updates on the newly formed Commission Streamlining Taskforce which has been formed to determine how board members/commissioners are appointed and removed, eliminating boards/commissions that are redundant or no longer serve a purpose, consolidating boards/commissions with similar functions, and assessing who has the authority to appoint and remove a City department head. Task Force must review the structure of the City's commissions and make its recommendations to the Mayor and Board of Supervisors by February 1, 2026.

Mr. Moment then called for a Consideration and Possible Action to Adopt two resolutions: Resolution Acknowledging Funding Expended by the Corporation of the Fine Arts Museums During the Period January 1, 2025 – March 31, 2025

WHEREAS, The Corporation of the Fine Arts Museums is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit corporation that exist to support the activities of the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees of the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco does hereby acknowledge with gratitude funding in the amount of $16,382,696 expended by the Corporation of the Fine Arts Museums for operations during the period January 1, 2025 – March 31, 2025.

Motion: Made and seconded

Vote: All in favor

Public Comment: There was no public comment

Result: Resolution Number 1964 is hereby adopted and recorded in the official minutes

Next he called for Consideration and Possible Action to Adopt a Resolution to Transfer Funds in the Admission Fund for the Fiscal Year 2025–2026

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees of the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco does hereby authorize the Controller of the City and County of San Francisco to transfer monthly excess revenue general admission over monthly admission operating expenses in the Admission Fund (11940-SR Museums Admission) to Authority Code 17041, Project Code 10023196 (FA Fine Arts Operating Rev/Exp), Account Code 535990 on a monthly basis for the Fiscal Year 2025–2026; and, be it FURTHER RESOLVED, That the funds in Project 10023196 are to be used to reimburse the Corporation of the Fine Arts Museums for expenses incurred on behalf of the Museums.
