COLLABORATIONS

(Work in progress) "Dandelions" Town Center Pathway Artwork – Lafayette, CA

15 large Dandelion seeds – hand-formed from perforated stainless steel – will be suspended above a new public plaza outside the BART station. The seeds will pivot and swing in response to the wind.

2023 Private Commission, Joan Balter Violins - Berkeley, CA

Wall mounted sculpture in studio garden.

2021 "Solar Portals" – Richland, WA

This sculpture is a playful exploration of light, shadow, color and time. Through a variety of different, interactive portals, the sun and other optical phenomena create experiences that are playful, engaging and thought-provoking for students and adults alike. A video can be found at 📺 Solar Portals.mov

2018 "Luminous Waveforms" – Colorado School of Mines, Golden, CO

Suspended above the entrance to the CoorsTek Center for Applied Sciences and Engineering, this kinetic sculpture utilizes high-tech ceramic tiles with an innovative linkage to physically transform – via pulleys and motors – into various waveforms while LED's create evolving patterns based on sine waves. A video can be found at 📺 Luminous Waveforms 1.2min high.mp4

2015 "eTau Awards" – San Francisco, CA

Thirteen custom awards were created to honor a group of scientists who made groundbreaking discoveries of the mechanisms of Alzheimer's.

2013 "Bicycle Trio" – Boise, ID

This "gateway artwork" consists of three sculptural bicycle forms that when ridden, power mechanical, musical instruments contained within the columns to invite spontaneous interactions between strangers through the expression of music and play. A video can be found at 📺 Bicycle Trio.mov

2012 "Cleaning House" and "A Drop of Blood" – COCC, Bend, OR

The COCC Health Careers Center trains nurses, dental techs, massage therapists and other practitioners whose primary focus is to help keep people healthy. This suspended sculpture is a model of human red blood cells as they flow through capillaries while white blood cells are destroying invading bacteria. A video can be seen at 📺 Cleaninghouse\_video.mp4

2011 "Red Oak" – Princeton, NJ

This suspended, kinetic artwork was commissioned for the three-story atrium of an office building in Princeton. A video can be seen at 📺 Red Oak.mov

2008 "Dust City Diner" – Black Rock Desert, NV

Interactive mobile diner with bee-hived waitresses serving grilled cheese sandwiches to the citizens of Burning Man, an outdoor arts festival. www.dustcitydiner.com

SUBJECT: West Portal Memorial – Letter of Approval

The San Francisco Public Library is writing this letter of approval to accept the gift from the non-profit organization Livable City. The statue was designed by artists David Cole and Michael Brown, to memorialize the Ramos Pinto de Oliveira family who tragically passed away in front of the West Portal Library Branch on March 16th, 2024. This statue will be sculpted out of bronze metal and will be erected on a cylindrical concrete slab, with the phrase “Together forever, your deep love for each other will be your lasting legacy” engraved on the cement in Portuguese. The statue will be placed in the garden area, in front of the West Portal Branch to memorialize the family and the love they had for one another.

MYRNA MELGAR

December 12, 2025

Dear President Collins and the Arts Commission,

Today, I am writing to share my enthusiastic support for the proposed memorial sculpture at the West Portal Library. As many of you know, San Francisco suffered a devastating tragedy on March 16, 2024 when a family of four was killed by a speeding vehicle at the intersection of Ulloa Street and West Portal. This incident shook the entire West Portal community and left a lasting hole in the heart of families across the City.

This proposed memorial is a small step to acknowledge this loss and commemorate the lives that were lost so swiftly and so young. The proposed sculpture was designed in collaboration with the surviving family members of Diego, Matilde, Joaquin and Caue and includes language in both English and their native Portuguese. This memorial symbolizes that while their earthly forms are no longer with us, their lives and their memories will be forever intertwined.

I speak on behalf of all of District 7 when I say that we are heartbroken by the tragic loss of Diego, Matilde, Joaquin and Caue. We mourn them. San Francisco mourns them. Portugal mourns them. Brazil mourns them. But we will never forget them. This statue, dedicated to their memory, is a way for us to honor their memory.

For these reasons, I fully support this project and urge you to vote in favor. If you require more information, please contact Emma Hare in my office via email at emma.hare@sfgov.org.

Sincerely,

Dear President Collins and Commissioners,

I am writing to share my strong support for the proposed memorial at the San Francisco Public Library's West Portal Branch.

The tragic crash that took the lives of the Pinto de Oliveira family was deeply felt by the neighborhood, staff at the SFMTA and across San Francisco. The proposed sculpture will serve to honor their lives and memory.

I am grateful to the community members who have organized and led the creation of this memorial and their collaboration with city partners like the San Francisco Public Library as well as family members of the Pinto de Oliveira family.

The community-led nature of this proposed memorial reflects the wide impact that the loss of the Pinto de Oliveira family has had across the city.

I fully support this proposed memorial and encourage your support as well.

Sincerely,

Julie Kirschbaum
Director of Transportation
San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency
