	9 Budget shows experience and realistic expectations. Though I would have like to see highly respected, elder and accomplished artistic director Joanna Haigood receive a larger salary, budget shows that they value expert artists and staff by providing good compensation for artists and staff. Important that there are stipends allocated for EVERYONE who contributes to this project. Appreciate the stipends for the youth company-so important.		10 Zaccho's proposal shows that they KNOW THIS WORK and how to reach the community in diverse ways. Their outreach strategy is expertly designed.	10
