The proposal clearly outlines objectives with detailed activities. The design is structured. The implementation plan includes outreach strategies, language justice, and integration of survivors into program design. Long-term impact is emphasized.	13	Deliverables are specific and measurable. The work plan and timeline is very detailed. Roles and responsibilities of staff are clear. While risk mitigation is implied, explicit contingency planning is not well-developed.	9	The budget is complete, reasonable, and matches the narrative. Administrative costs are modest, program staff costs are proportional, and non-personnel allocations align.	5

F: Evaluation & Reporting		G: Letters of Recommendation
Optional Rationale	Category Score	Optional Rationale	Category Score	Optional Rationale
This section was addressed in Organizational Background and Cultural Responsiveness.		No mention of software used or specific reporting they provide to other funders. Used language about performance metrics with little detail.	5 Points	I am not sure how many other scorers will recognize that this category falls under "Bold and Visible", referenced in both letters. The letters are very specific to this category.
	3	Proposal includes clear tracking and evaluation. Strong transparency and accountability. The description could better explain data systems for outcome tracking beyond participation metrics.	5 Points	CUAV presents a well-structured, survivor-centered, and culturally responsive proposal.
CUAV details strong outreach rooted in language justice and collaboration. Accessibility is well integrated.	8		3 Points
