Property Owner(s) Name and Appellant:

Pang Zeng Lie

Appellant:

Pang Zeng Lie (Property Owner)

Building/Property Description: The subject property is a one-family dwelling (R-3 occupancy) located at 242 Moscow Street

Legal Use/Occupancy: R-3 Single Family Dwelling

Case Summary:

This case originated from a telephone complaint received on July 3, 2023, reporting unpermitted exterior and garage-level construction activity at the subject property. Subsequent inspections confirmed that multiple alterations had been performed without the benefit of required permits, including infill of the garage door with installation of a new entry door, construction of a trash enclosure exceeding 36 inches in height, replacement of three windows, replacement of a stair handrail, installation of an awning, addition of a window, and installation of a vent, all located at the front of the structure. A First Notice of Violation was issued on July 10, 2023 for work performed without permits.

Permit Application No. 202307172350 was issued on July 18, 2023 to comply with the Notice of Violation; however, the permit reflected no inspection history, and the cited violations remained uncorrected. A Final Warning Letter was issued on November 5, 2024, and the case was subsequently referred to the Code Enforcement Section for further enforcement action.

A Director's Hearing was held on May 6, 2025, resulting in a 60-Day Advisement requiring completion of all required permits and inspections. Continued non-compliance led to issuance of Order of Abatement No. 202310230-A on July 8, 2025.

Re: 242 Moscow Street -AAB Appeal No. 6967

Dear Board of Appeal,

We would like to appeal the notice of abatement for the above property due to the lack of access to perform the required work/ denial by the tenant and his counsel to let us enter and do the required work under Permit #202307172350.

On 7/10/2023, the NOV was issued for the above property. On 7/18/2023, we got a permit to cure this NOV. Because there was a pending eviction, the tenant was not cooperating and we could not do any work. On May 6, 2025, a director's hearing was held at DBI in which a 60 day advisement was given to perform the work. On May 18, 2025, we receive a letter and email from the tenant's lawyer stating we cannot come in to do any work.

Due to the pending litigation with the tenant, we cannot have access to do any work at the premises. Therefore, I ask the board for their understanding and wait for the litigation to come to a resolution so we can do the work. We ask that we are not penalized and the fees be waived as the situation is not under our control at this time.

Thank you for your consideration.

Re: Bai Tian Tan & Miaoqin Xu Family Residence
242 Moscow Street, San Francisco, CA 94112

Dear Ms. Le:

I am in receipt of your notice of construction. Please be advised that I have instructed my clients not to allow the entry until certain conditions are met as the notice does not comply with the requirements of Civil Code §1954. If you or your agents attempt to enter tomorrow morning, you/they will be treated as trespassers.

In order to resolve this, please provide a description of all of the work to be done including any plans, drawings and contracts for the work to the garage door. Given all of the shoddy, non-code compliant work that has been previously done at the property, please also provide the name, contact information and contractor's license number of the person(s) or company who will be doing the work. We need enough detail to be able to determine that the work can be safely done with the Tan family in residence, especially since the garage door as it is currently configured constitutes the front wall of their living room.

Once it is determined that the proposed work is necessary and can be done safely, you will need to provide more than 24-hours written notice. Such short notice is not reasonable under the circumstances. You are basically asking my clients to empty the living room of all of their furnishings and possessions.

Giving notice of entry on a Sunday morning for entry on Monday morning given the amount of work you are asking the Tan's to do is the type of harassment that Civil Code §1954(c) prohibits. The notice of entry you provided this morning is clearly unreasonable solely on this basis. Your description of the work to be done also needs to clearly justify why the Tan family's belongings need to be moved 10 feet from the front door.

Additionally, the Tan family will not be putting the garbage cans in the backyard. It is unreasonable to ask them to move the garbage cans through their living room and kitchen into the back yard. You will need to come up with a workable solution other than that to cure the Notice of Violation.

Tan Improper Notice Letter
May 18, 2025

Please note this letter in no way waives any rights Mr. Tan and Ms. Xu have to have a safe, habitable home.

The Department of Building Inspection on May 6, 2025, gave you and the owners 60 days to cure the Notice of Violation issued in 2023. The work you described in the permit will not cure the Notice of Violation as it does not cure the illegality of the unit which the owners have been renting to the Tan family. An over-the-counter permit to do work on the garage door will not legalize the rental unit. For that you need plans, architectural drawings and multiple permits. I would suggest that you contact a lawyer before you take any further steps.

Sincerely,

Abel Mouton
