INSTRUCTION PACKET FOR DEPUTY MARRIAGE COMMISSIONER
Sworn-in for One Ceremony Only

Congratulations on becoming a Deputy Marriage Commissioner. Your commission is valid for ONE civil ceremony only as stated on your oath of office to be performed in the State of California.

Deputy Marriage Commissioners cannot accept money or anything of value for performing a marriage on a day other than a legal holiday or weekend, or will be in violation of Penal Code 70.5. Solemnizing a marriage without first being presented with a California marriage license, willfully making a false statement on a marriage license to the County Clerk, or failing to file a license within 10 days of marriage, is a misdemeanor under Penal Code 360.

On the day of the ceremony, prior to officiating, the couple must provide you with a valid San Francisco County issued marriage license.

Attached are instructions for completing the License and Certificate of Marriage (VS-117) and the Confidential License and Certificate of Marriage (VS-123), whichever is applicable.

After the marriage, it is your responsibility to return the license to the proper agency:

If PUBLIC (VS-117) return to:

No other human ties are more tender and no other vows more important than those you are about to pledge.

Please face each other and join hands.

Do you _____, take _____, to be your lawful wedded wife [spouse]? Do you promise to love her/him and comfort her/him, honor her/him and keep her/him in sickness and in health, for richer and for poorer, for better or for worse and be faithful to her/him as long as you both shall live?

Do you _____, take _____, to be your lawful wedded husband [spouse]? Do you promise to love him/her and comfort him/her, honor him/her and keep him/her in sickness and in health, for richer and for poorer, for better or for worse and be faithful to him/her as long as you both shall live?

RING CEREMONY (OPTIONAL)

_____/_____, the ring please. Place the ring on her/his left ring finger and repeat after me, "I give you this ring, in token and pledge of my constant faith and abiding love. With this ring, I thee wed." (Repeat for Spouse 2)

Now that you have joined yourselves in matrimony, may you strive all your lives to meet this commitment with the same love and devotion that you now possess.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the State of California, I now pronounce you Husband and Wife [Spouses for Life].

CIVIL CEREMONY MARRIAGE VOWS

We are gathered here in the presence of witnesses for the purpose of uniting in matrimony _____ and _____.

The contract of marriage is most solemn and is not to be entered into lightly, but thoughtfully and seriously with a deep realization of its obligations and responsibilities.

_____, no other words of mine or any other person truly marry each of you to the other. That is done when you exchange your promises and commit yourselves to this marriage and each other.

By entering into this marriage, you are pledging yourselves to a lifetime in which each will enrich the life of the other. You will be partners standing together to cushion the difficulties of life. Rejoice in your partner's graces. Nurture your marriage carefully and watch it grow gracefully. Marriage is a point of honor. Marriage is a full time job.

Please face each other and join hands.

Do you _____, take _____, to be your lawful wedded spouse? To have and to hold from this day forward, for better or for worse, for richer or for poorer, in sickness and in health; to love and to cherish as long as you both shall live? (Repeat for Spouse 2)

RING CEREMONY(OPTIONAL)

_____, the ring please. Place the ring on his/her left ring finger and repeat after me, "I give you this ring, in token and pledge of my constant faith and abiding love. With this ring, I thee wed." (Repeat for Spouse 2)

You have joined yourselves in solemn matrimony. May you strive all your lives to meet this commitment with the same love and devotion that you now possess. For love is truly the greatest gift we are given to share; love's compassion is the glory of life. Delight in each other's company and never take the other for granted, for you are destined to enjoy the blending of your two lives.
