

2025 Homelessness Needs Assessment

HSH Admin Appendix

Office of the Controller
Aya Kanan and Radhika Mehlotra

September 2025

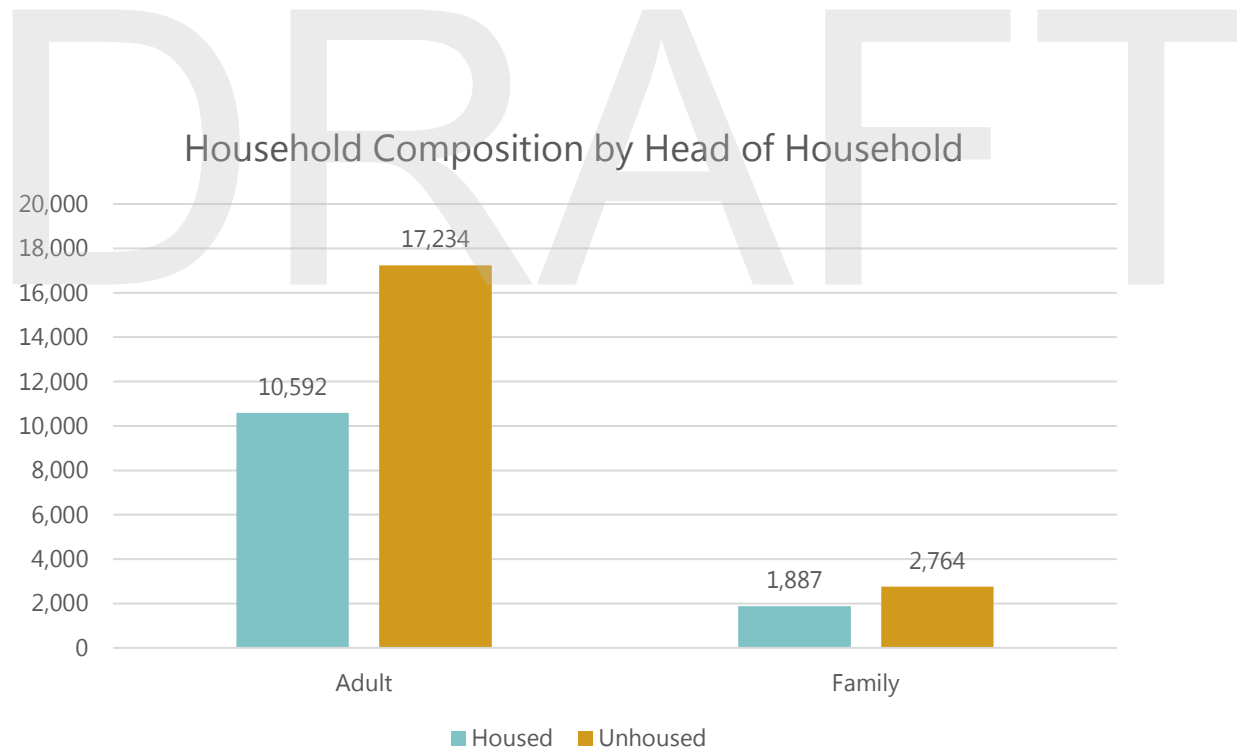

Data Overview

HSH ONE System

- Jan 1, 2024 – December 31, 2024
- Data at individual and household levels, duplicated
- Housed: People living in HSH housing at any point in 2024
- Unhoused: People seeking homelessness response system services at any point in 2024

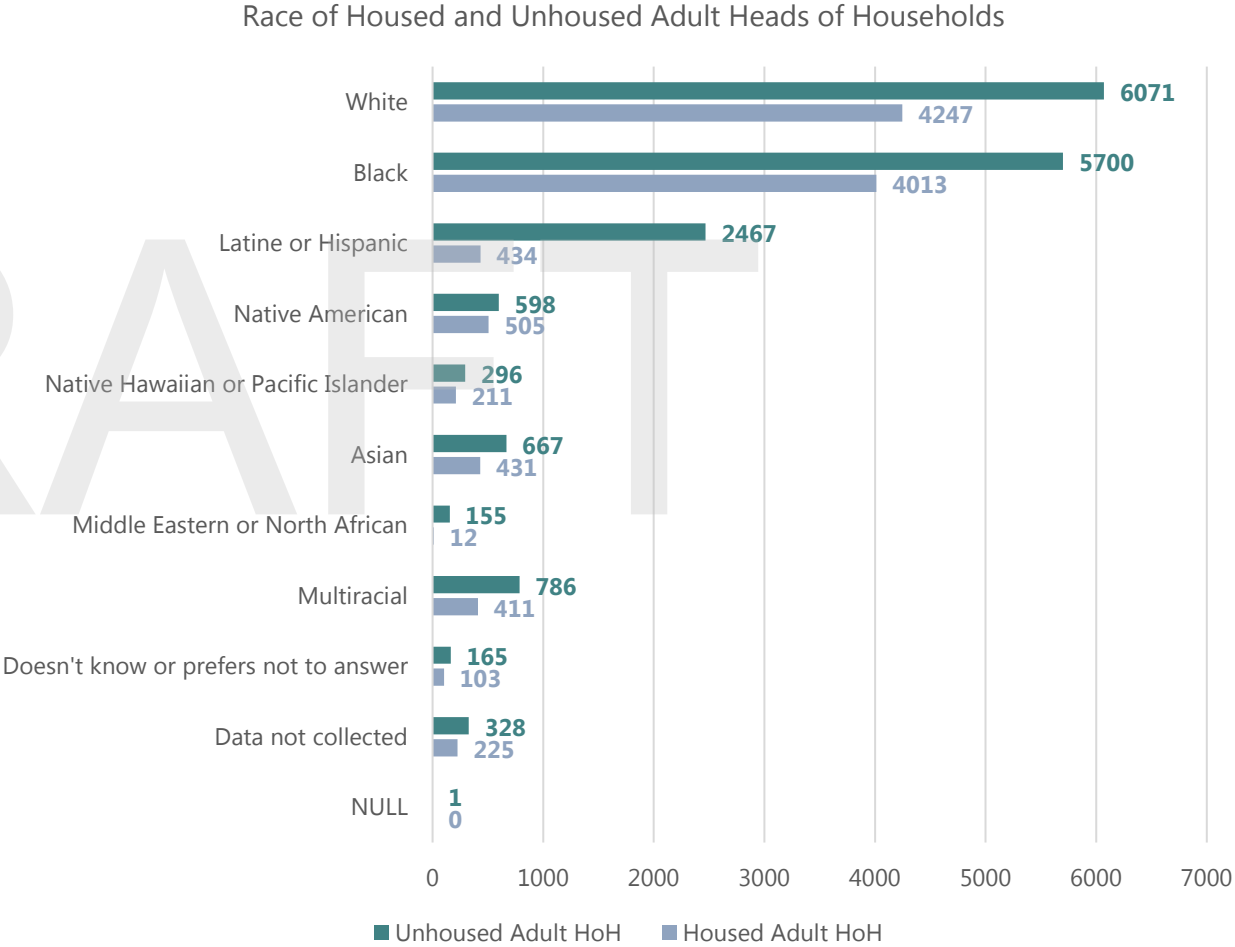

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Household Composition by Head of Household

- Regardless of housing status, single adults account for approximately 85% of heads of households
- Families account for 15% of housed heads of households and 14% of unhoused heads of households

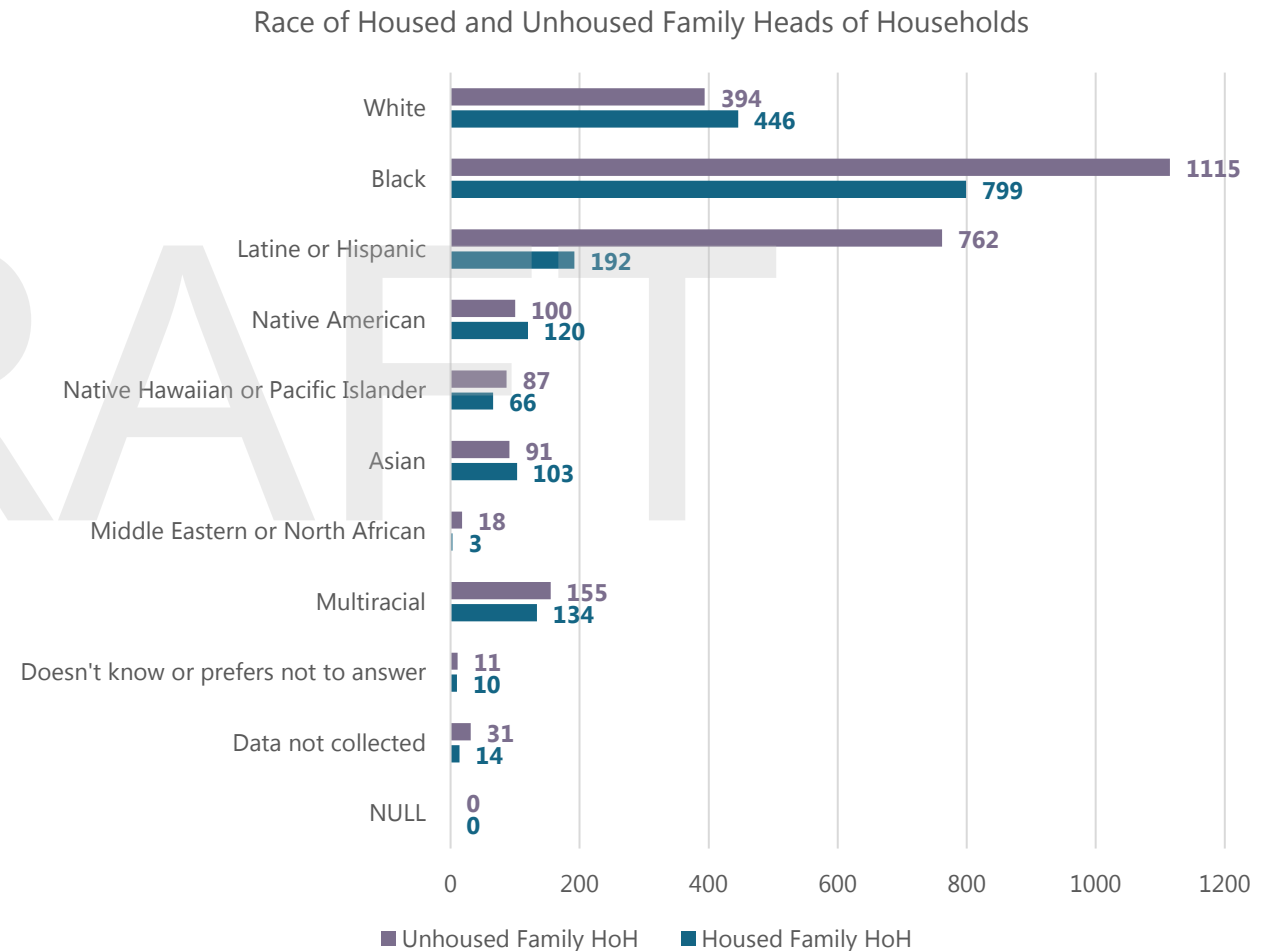

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Race – Adult Heads of households

- Most adult heads of households, regardless of housing status, identify as White or Black.
- Significantly more unhoused adult heads of households identify as Latine/Hispanic compared to housed adult heads of households.

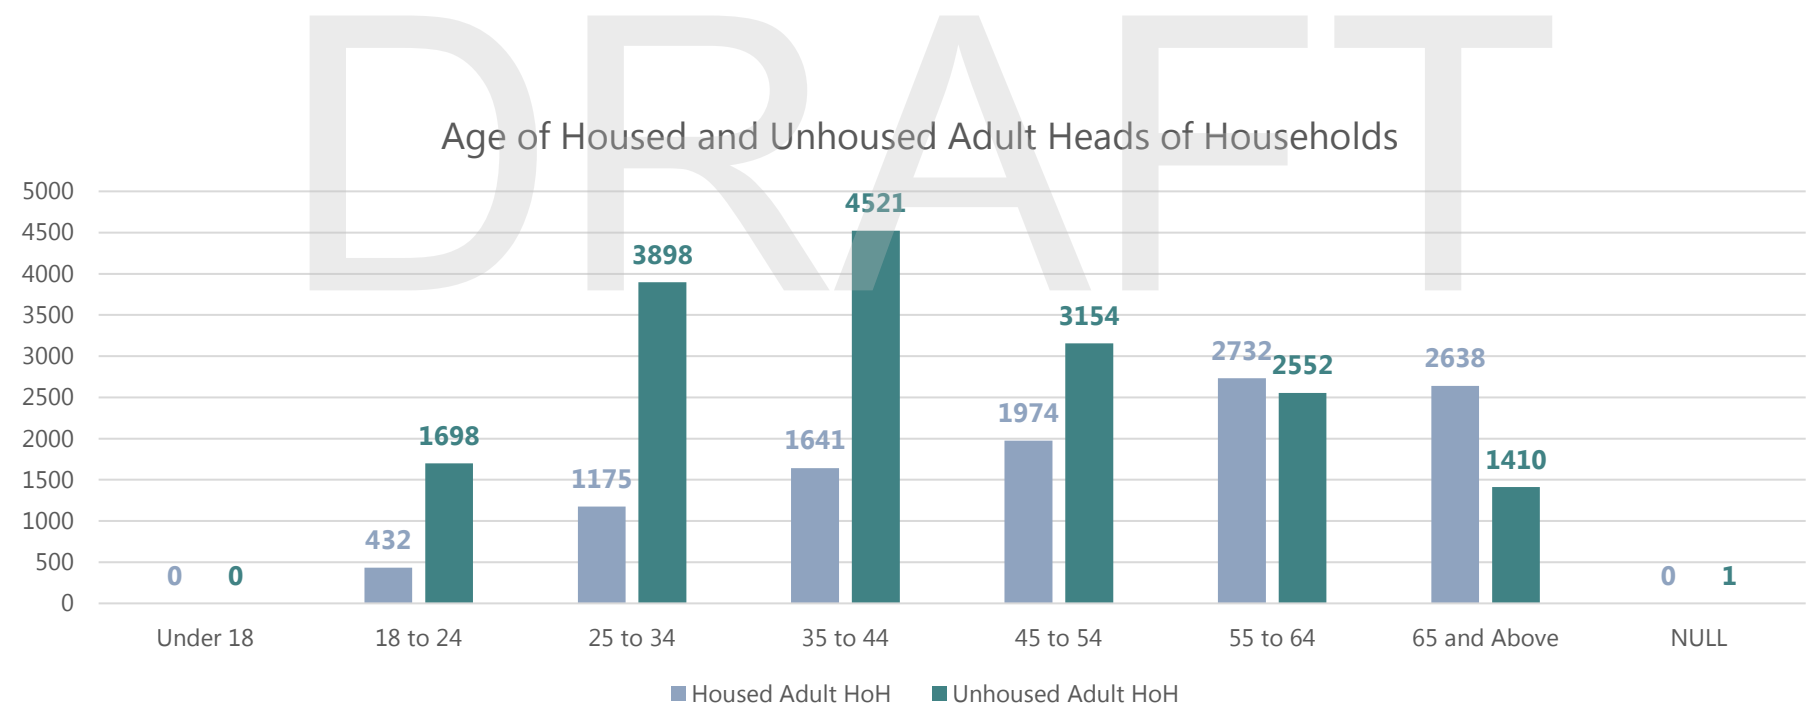

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Race – Family Heads of households

- The largest racial group represented in the housed and unhoused family population is Black.
- Latine/Hispanic is the second highest racial group for housed family heads of households, while White is the second highest racial group for unhoused family heads of households.
- Significantly more unhoused family heads of households identify as Latine/Hispanic compared to housed family heads of households.

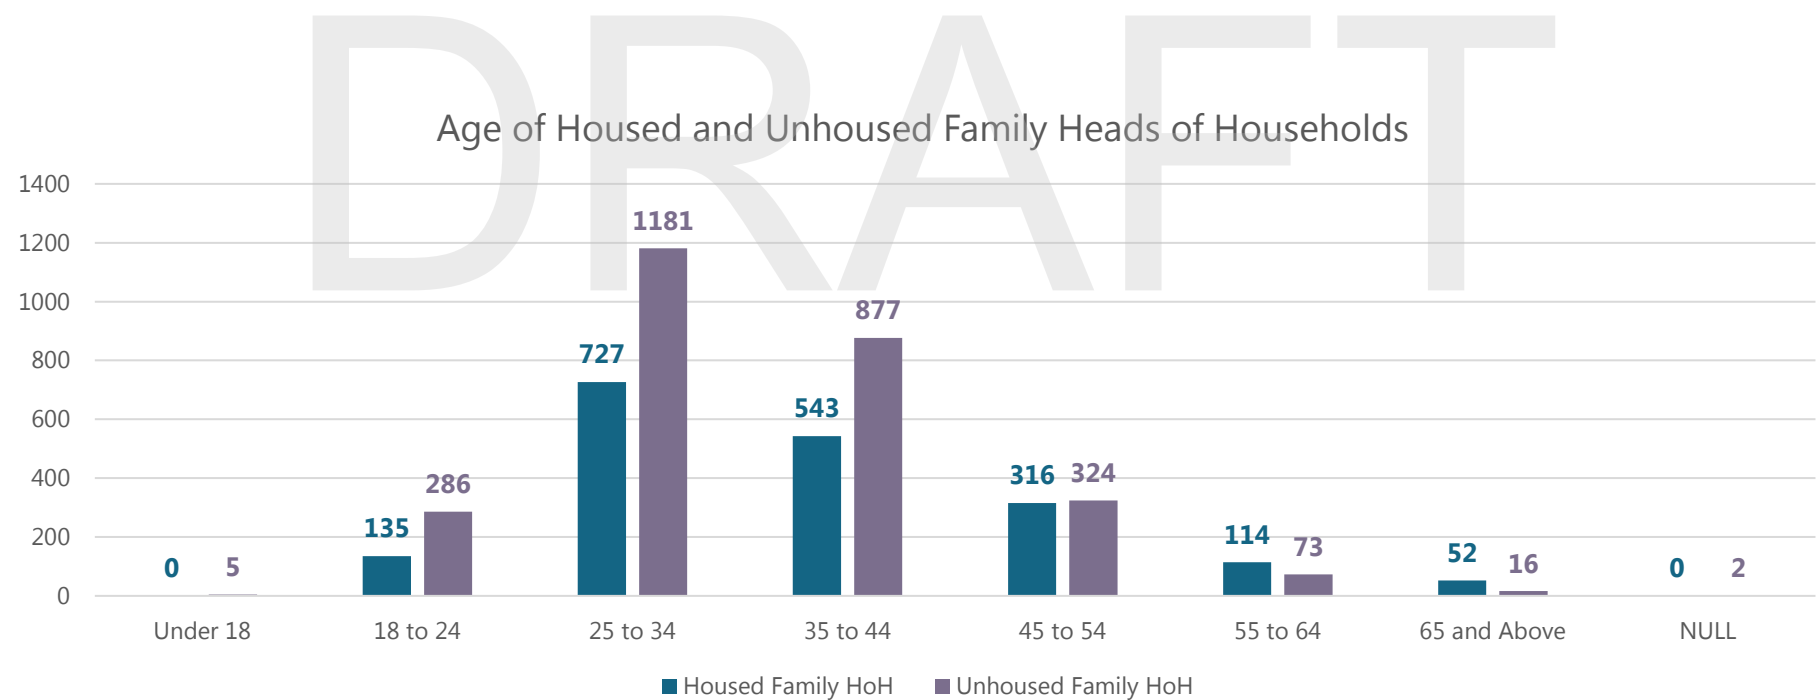

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Age – Adult Heads of Households

- Of unhoused adult heads of households, those aged 25-34 (23%) and 35-44 (26%) interacted with the City’s systems the most in 2024.
- Of housed adult heads of households, those aged 55-64 (26%) and 65+ (25%) interacted with City systems the most in 2024.

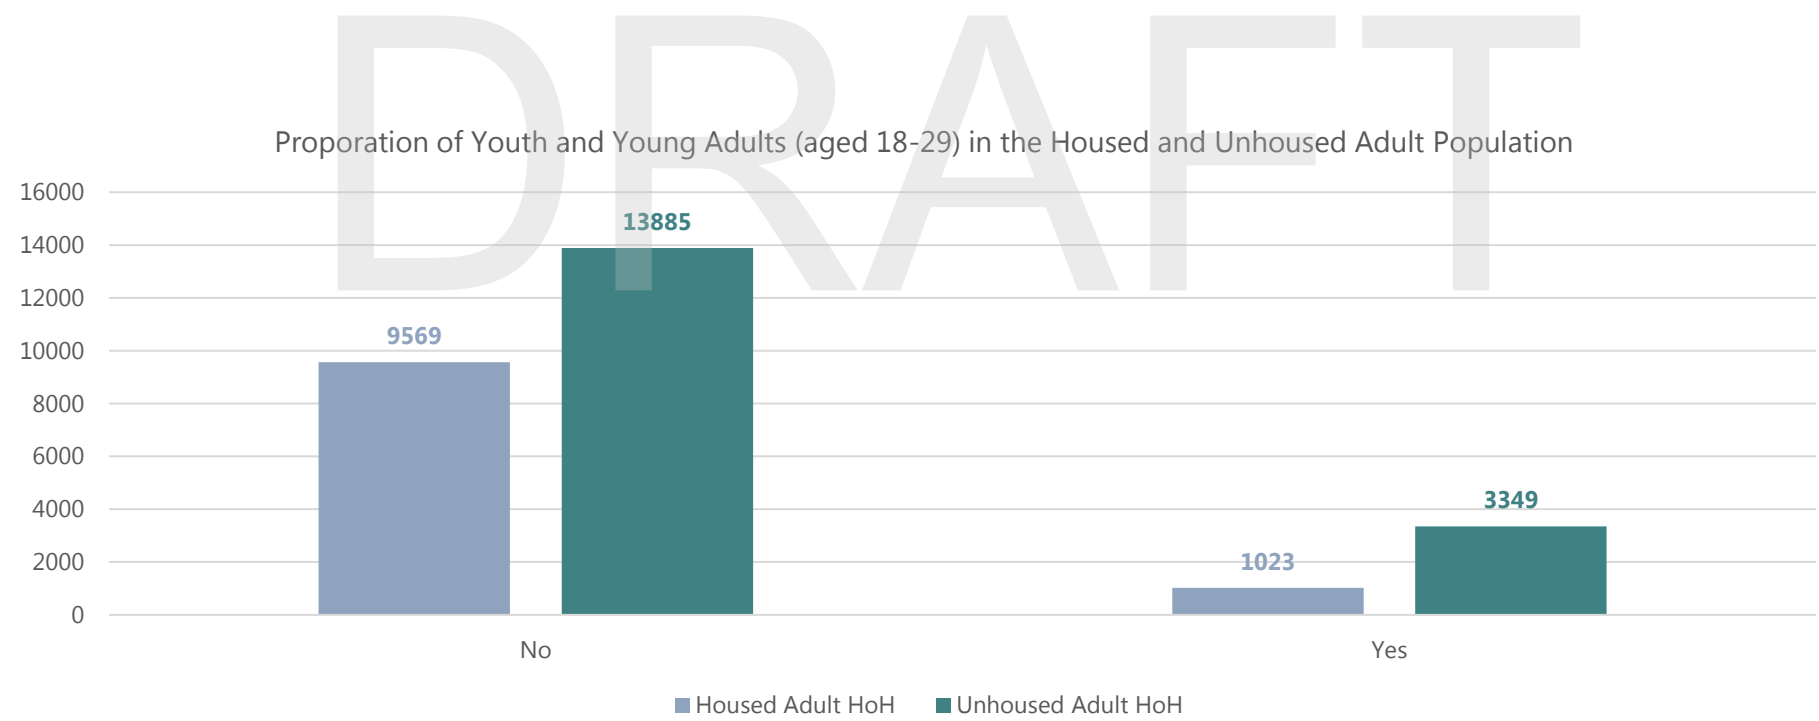

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Age – Family Heads of households

- Of unhoused family heads of households, those aged 25-34 (43%) and 35-44 (32%) interacted with the City’s systems the most in 2024.
- Of housed family heads of households, those aged 25-34 (39%) and 35-44 (29%) interacted with City systems the most in 2024.

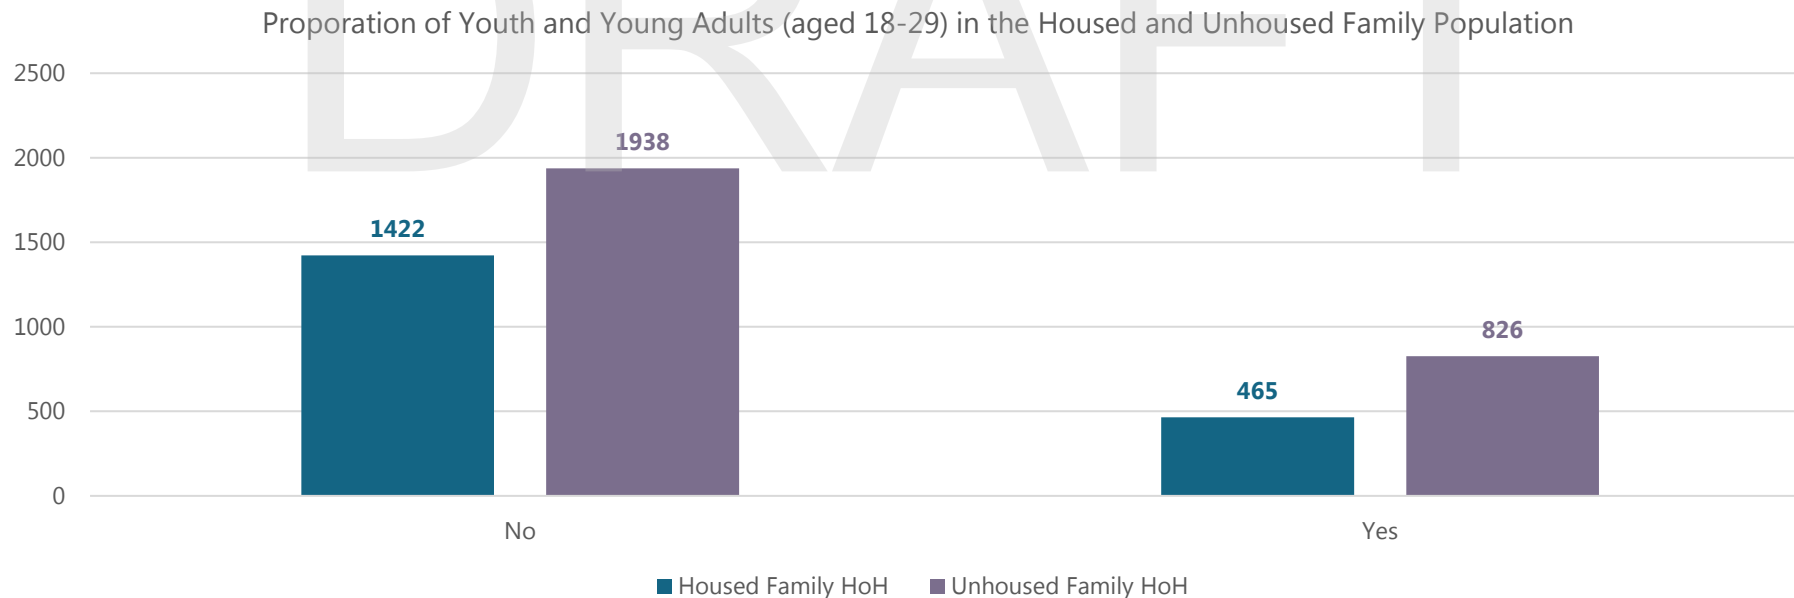

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Youth and Young Adults (aged 18-29) – Adult Heads of households

- Youth and Young Adults (aged 18-29) make up 19% of the unhoused adult population and 10% of the housed adult population.

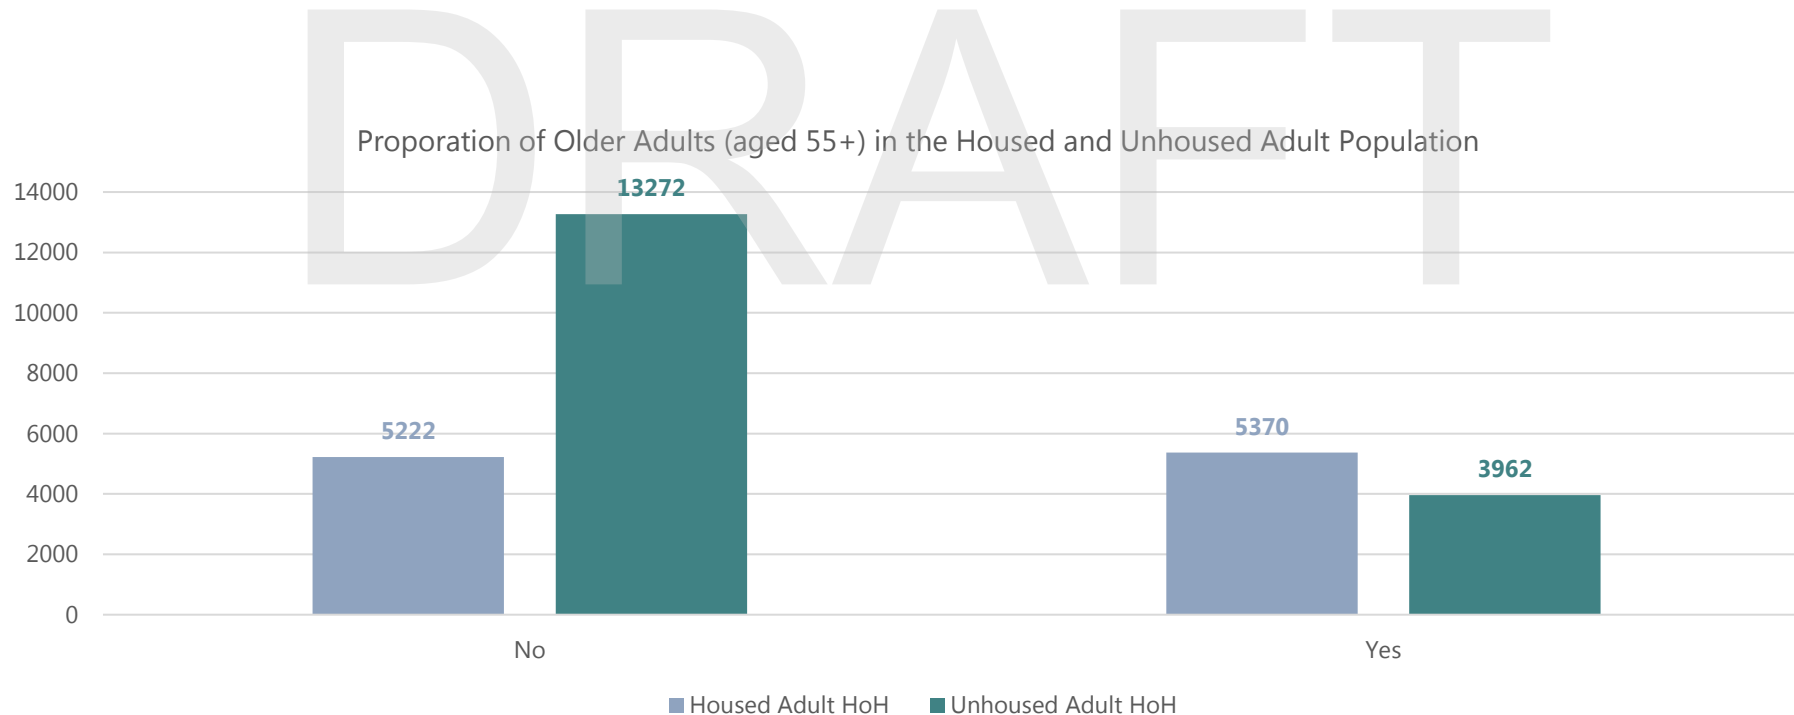

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Youth and Young Adults (aged 18-29) – Family Heads of households

- Youth and Young Adults (aged 18-29) make up a similar proportion of the housed and unhoused family population.
- Youth and Young Adults (aged 18-29) make up 30% of the unhoused family population and 25% of the housed family population.

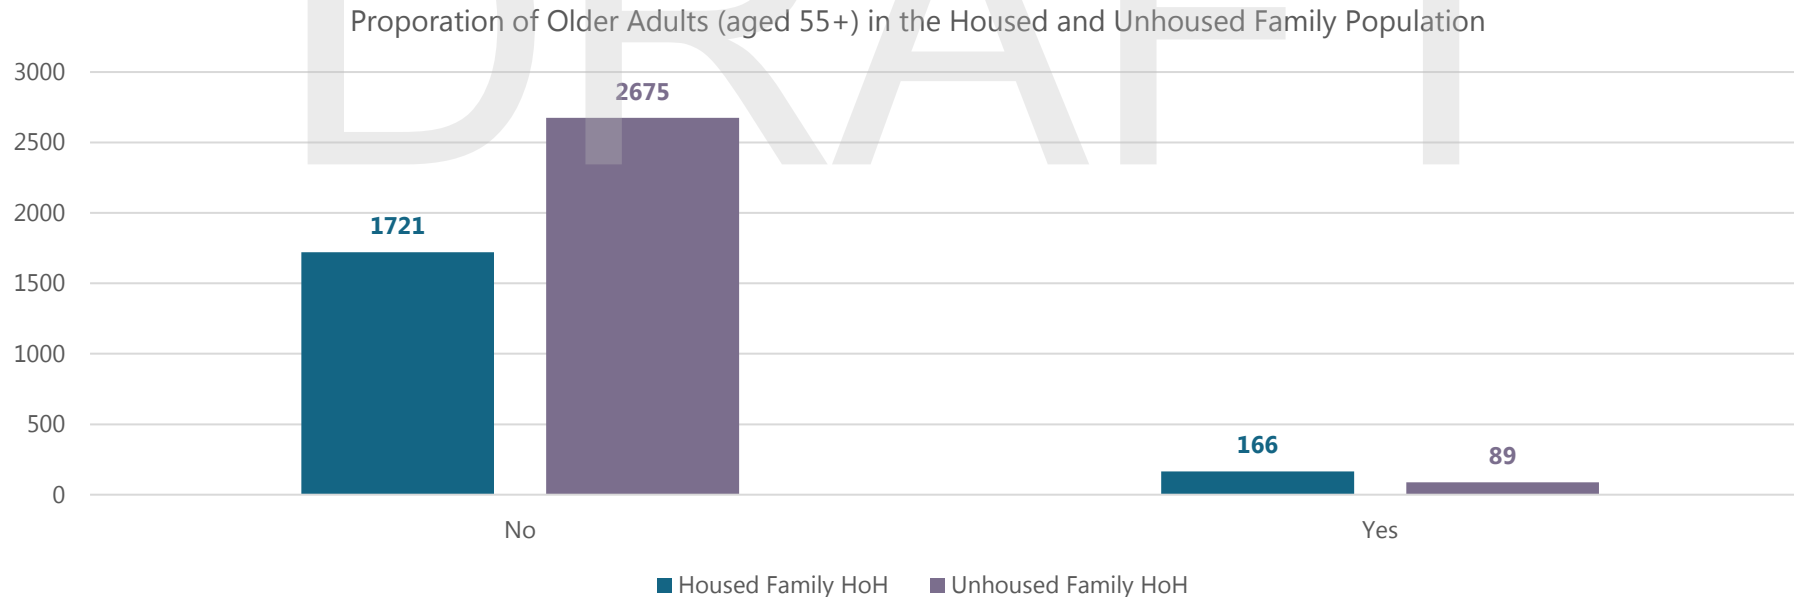

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Older Adults (aged 55+) – Adult Heads of households

- Just over half (51%) of the housed adult population are Older Adults (aged 55+), while just under a quarter (23%) of the unhoused adult population are Older Adults.

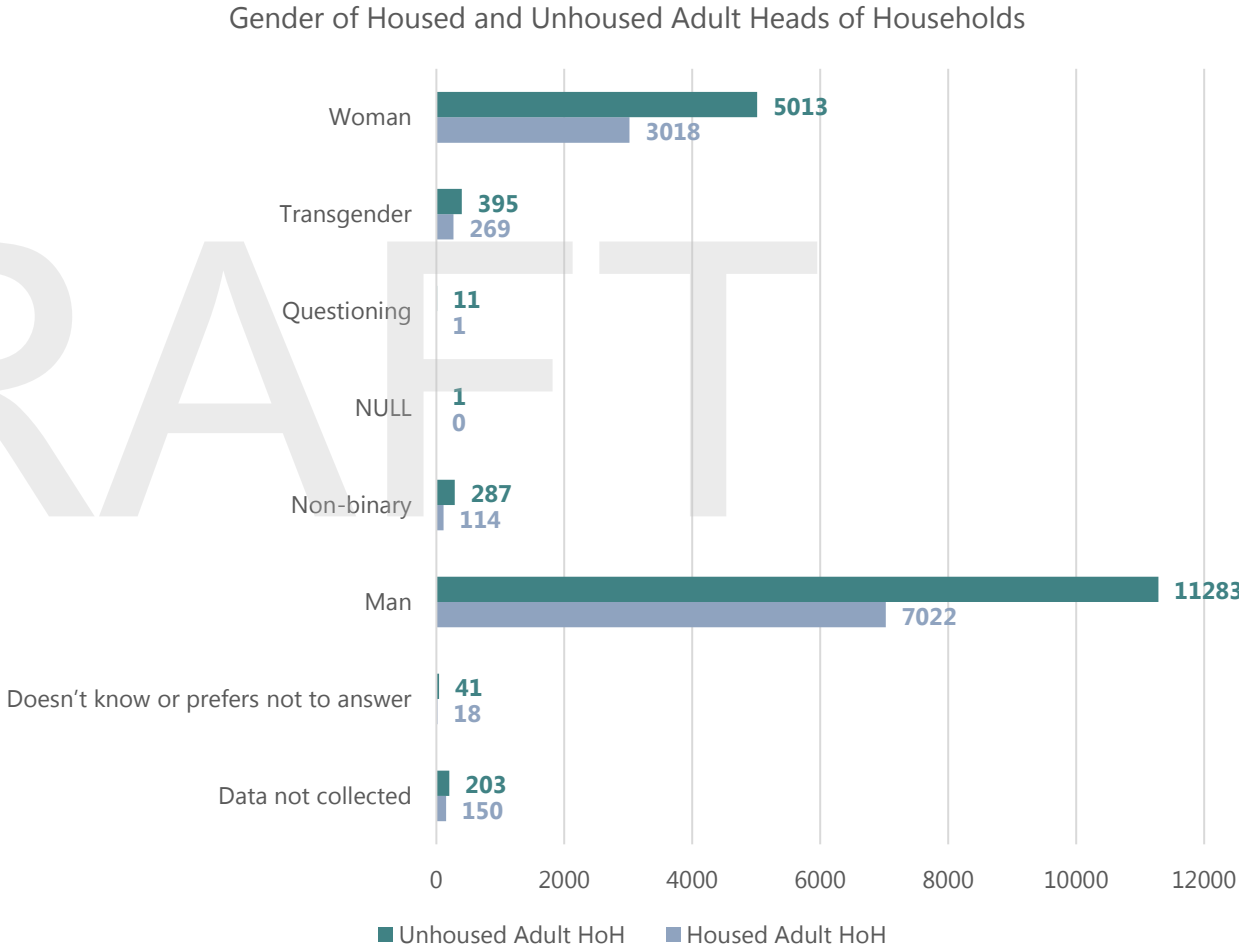

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Older Adults (aged 55+) – Family Heads of households

- Older Adults (aged 55+) make up a small portion of the housed and unhoused family population.
- Older Adults (aged 55+) make up 9% of the housed family population and 3% of the housed family population.

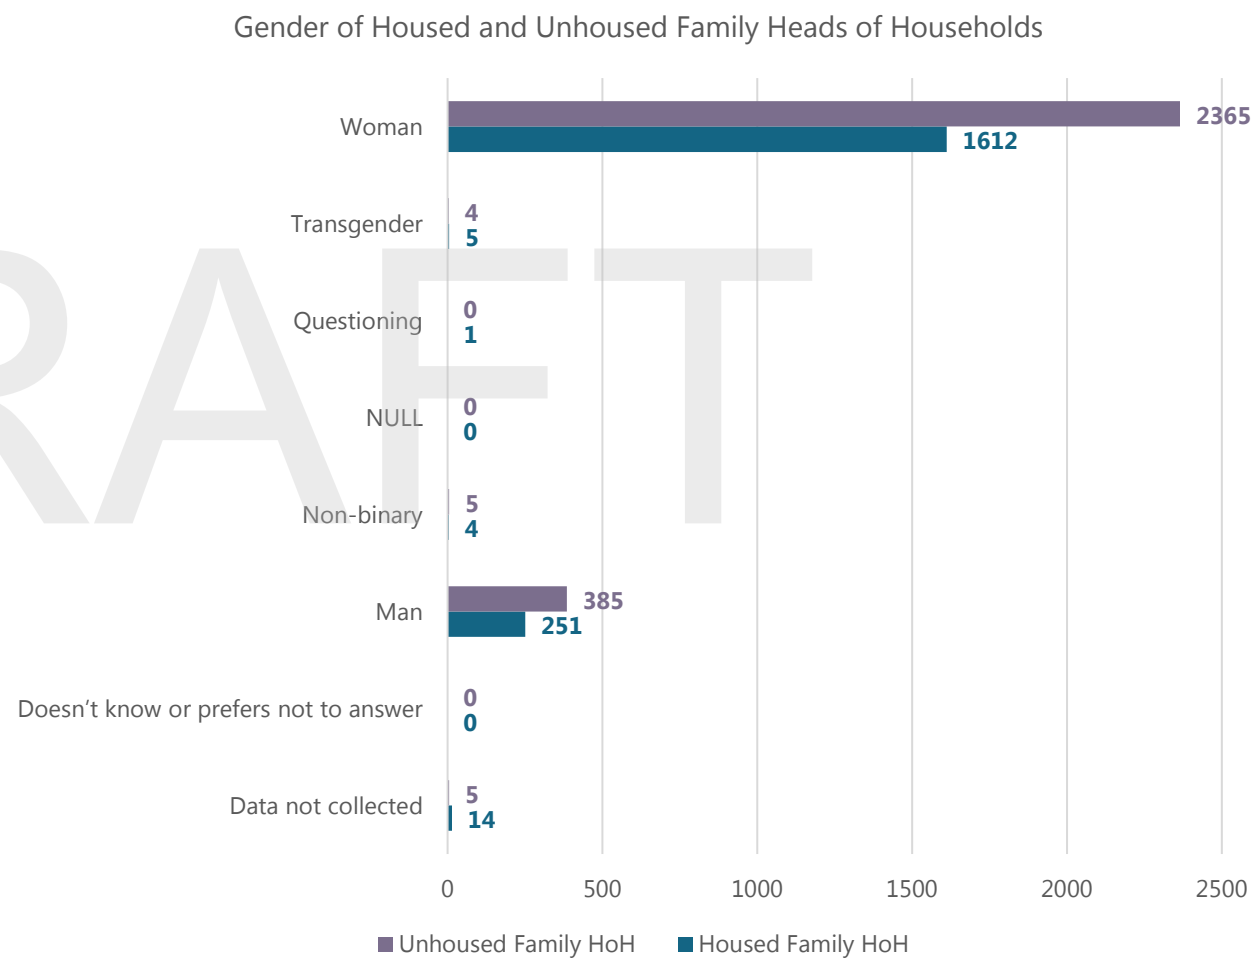

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Gender – Adult Heads of households

- Most adult heads of households, regardless of housing status, are men.
- Woman make up 29% of the unhoused adult population and 28% of the housed adult population.
- Housed and unhoused transgender and nonbinary heads of households account for similar percentages across the adult population.

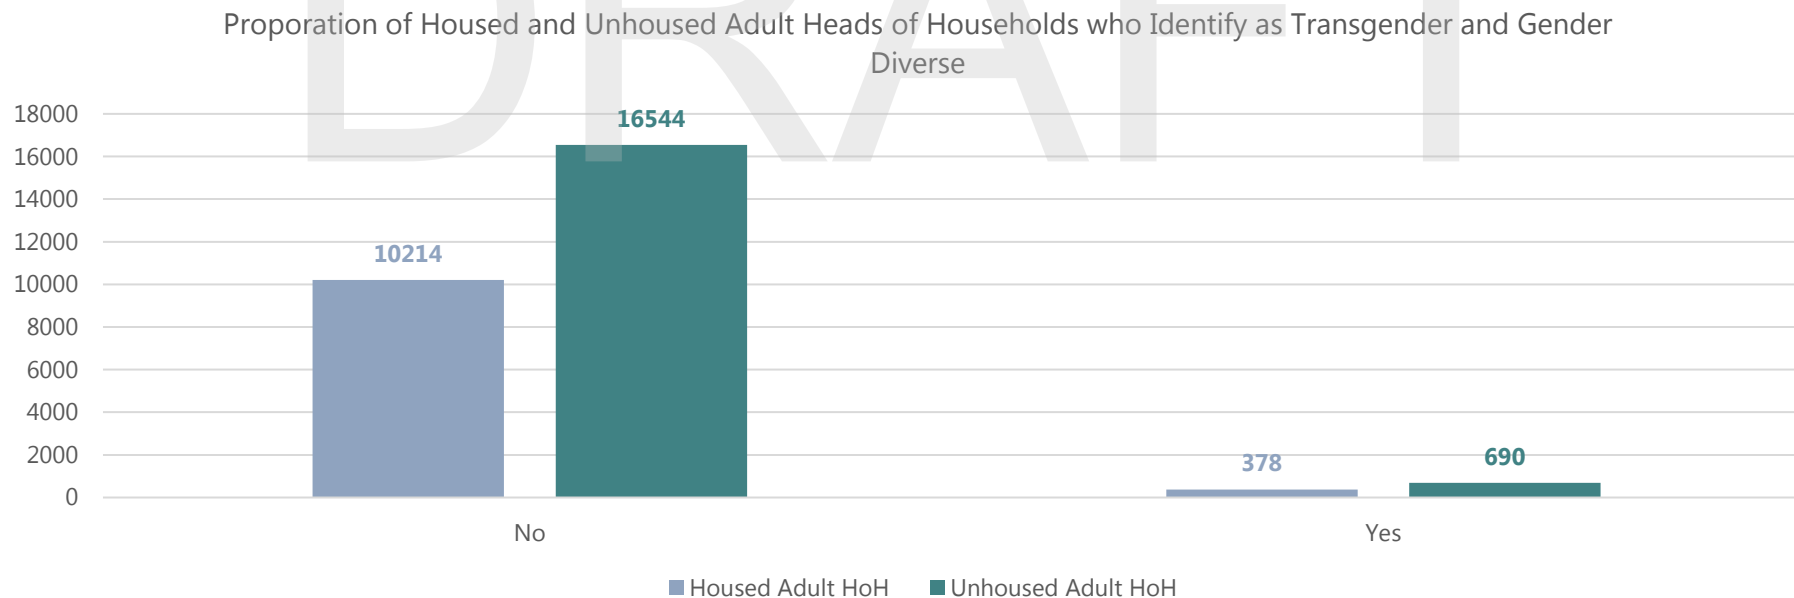

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Gender – Family Heads of households

- A large majority of family heads of households, regardless of housing status, are women.
- Men make up 14% of the unhoused family population and 13% of the housed family population.
- Housed and unhoused transgender and nonbinary heads of households account for similar percentages across the family population.

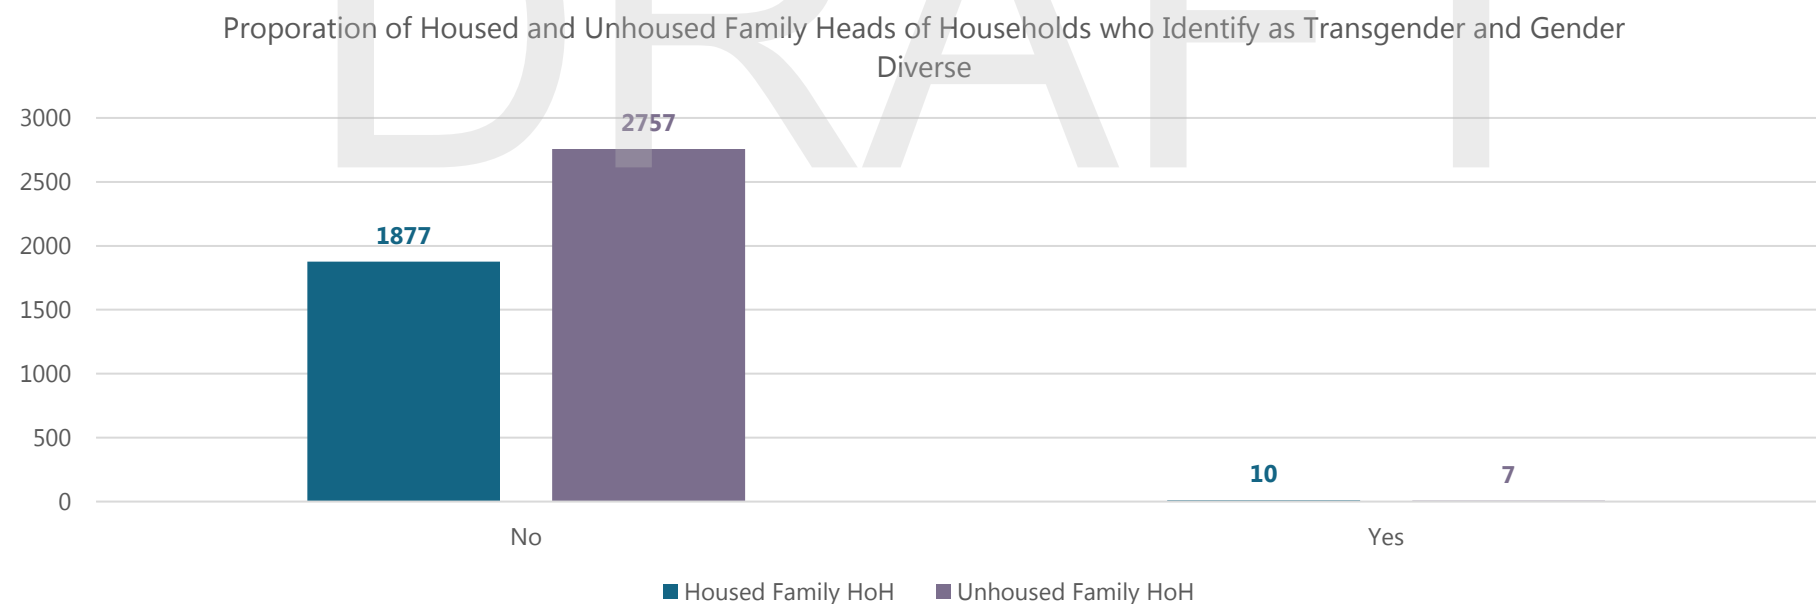

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Transgender and Gender Diverse – Adult Heads of households

- Transgender and Gender Diverse heads of households make up a similar proportion (4%) of the housed and unhoused adult population.
- The majority of adult heads of households, regardless of housing status, do not identify as Transgender and Gender Diverse.

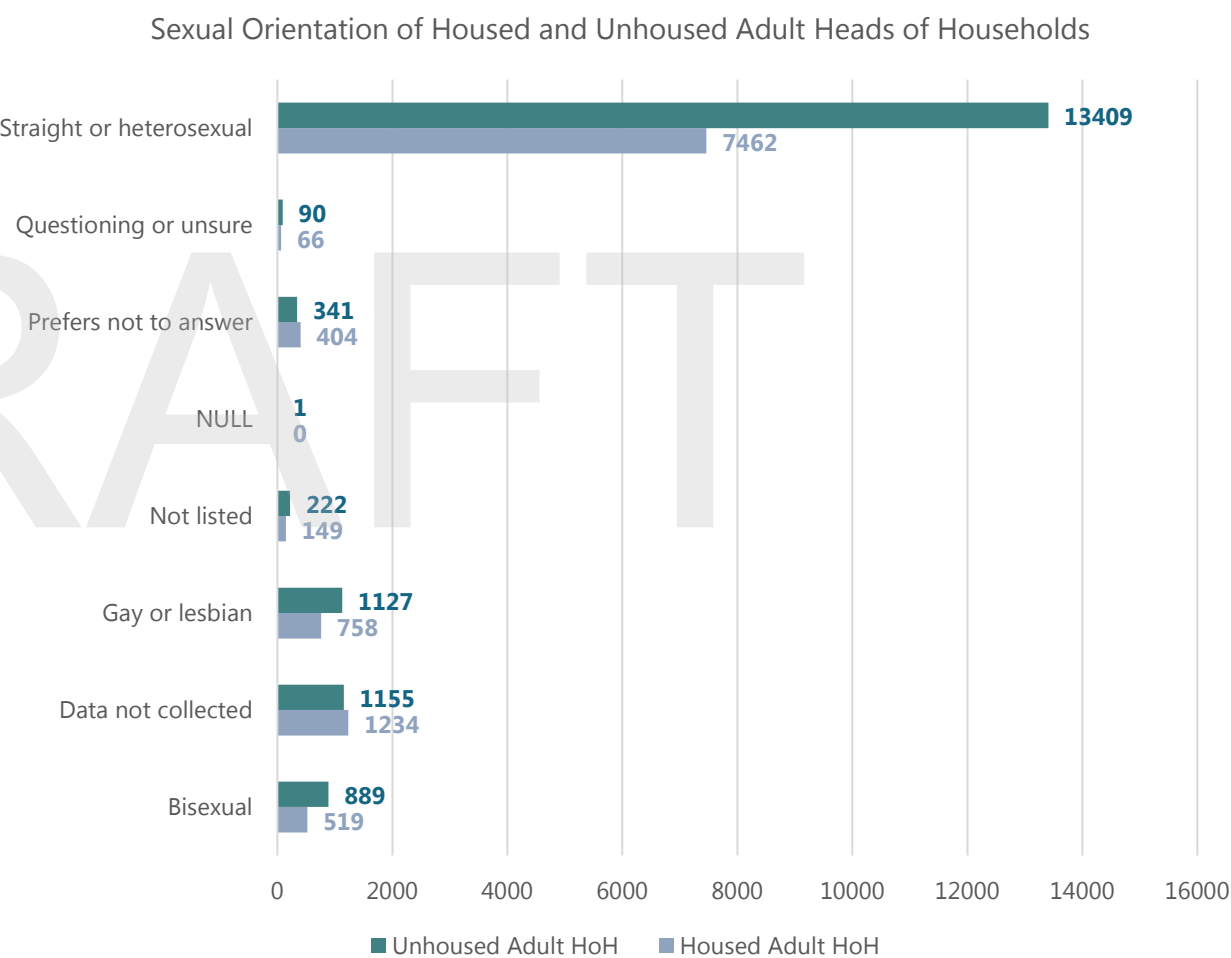

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Transgender and Gender Diverse – Family Heads of households

- Transgender and Gender Diverse heads of households make up a similar proportion of the housed and unhoused family population (0.5% and 0.3% respectively).
- The majority of family heads of households, regardless of housing status, do not identify as Transgender and Gender Diverse.

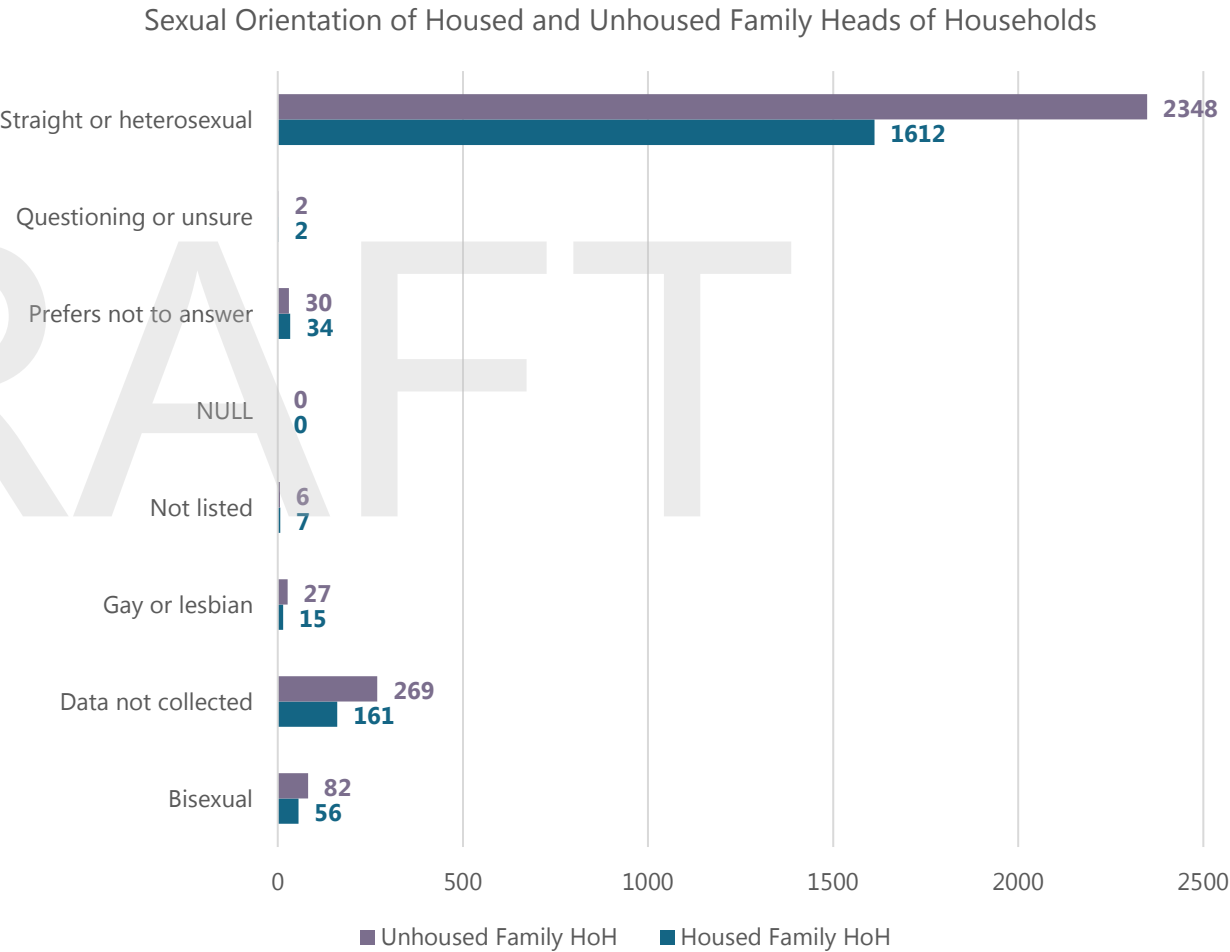

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Sexual Orientation – Adult Heads of households

- A large majority of adult heads of households, regardless of housing status, identify as Straight or Heterosexual.
- Housed and unhoused bisexual and gay or lesbian heads of households account for similar percentages across the adult population.

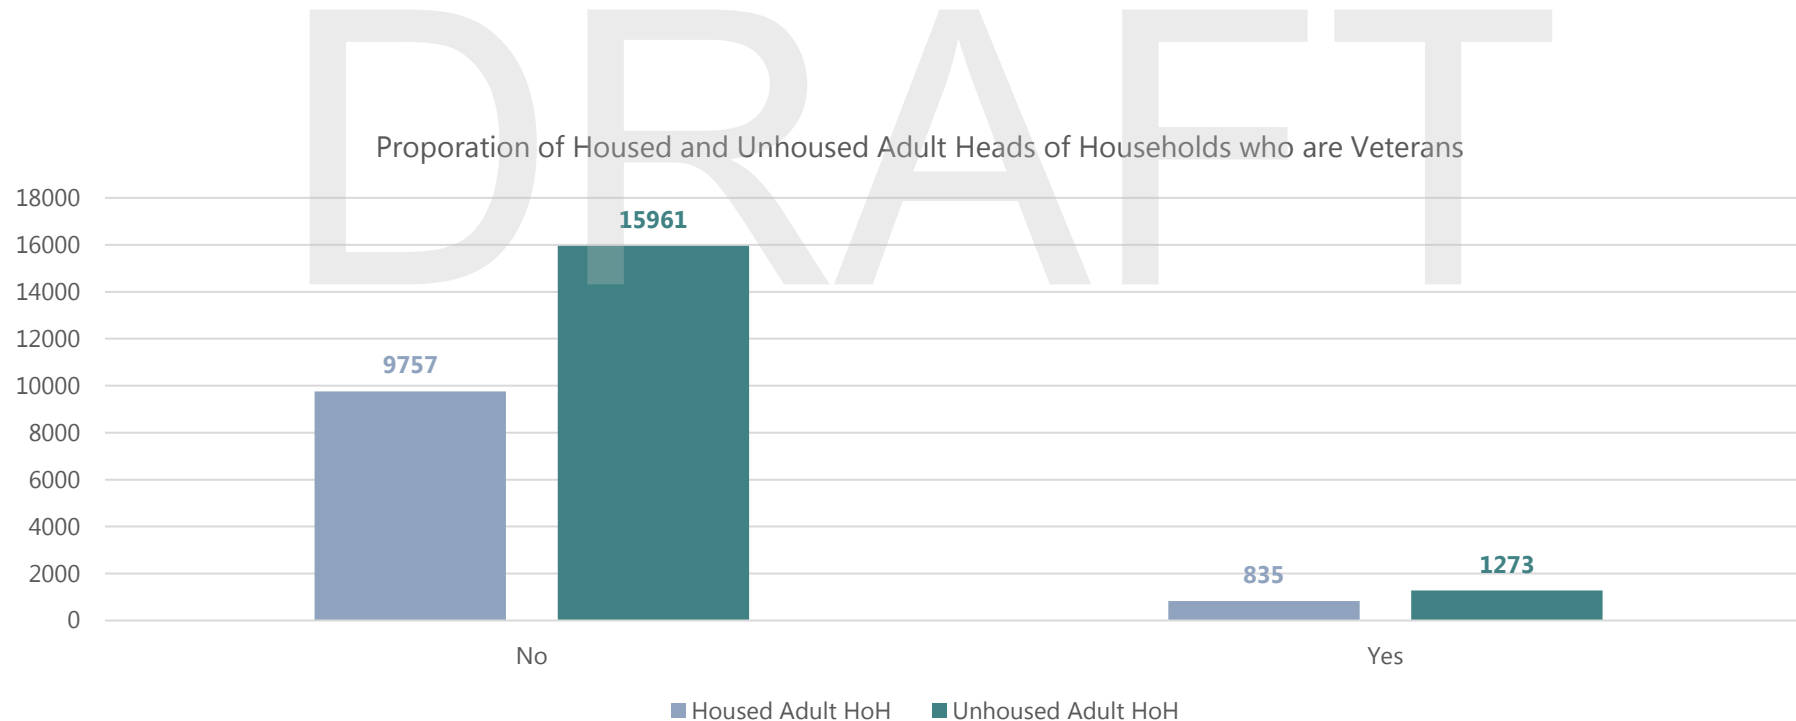

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Sexual Orientation – Family Heads of households

- A large majority of family heads of households, regardless of housing status, identify as Straight or Heterosexual.
- Housed and unhoused bisexual and gay or lesbian heads of households account for similar percentages across the family population.

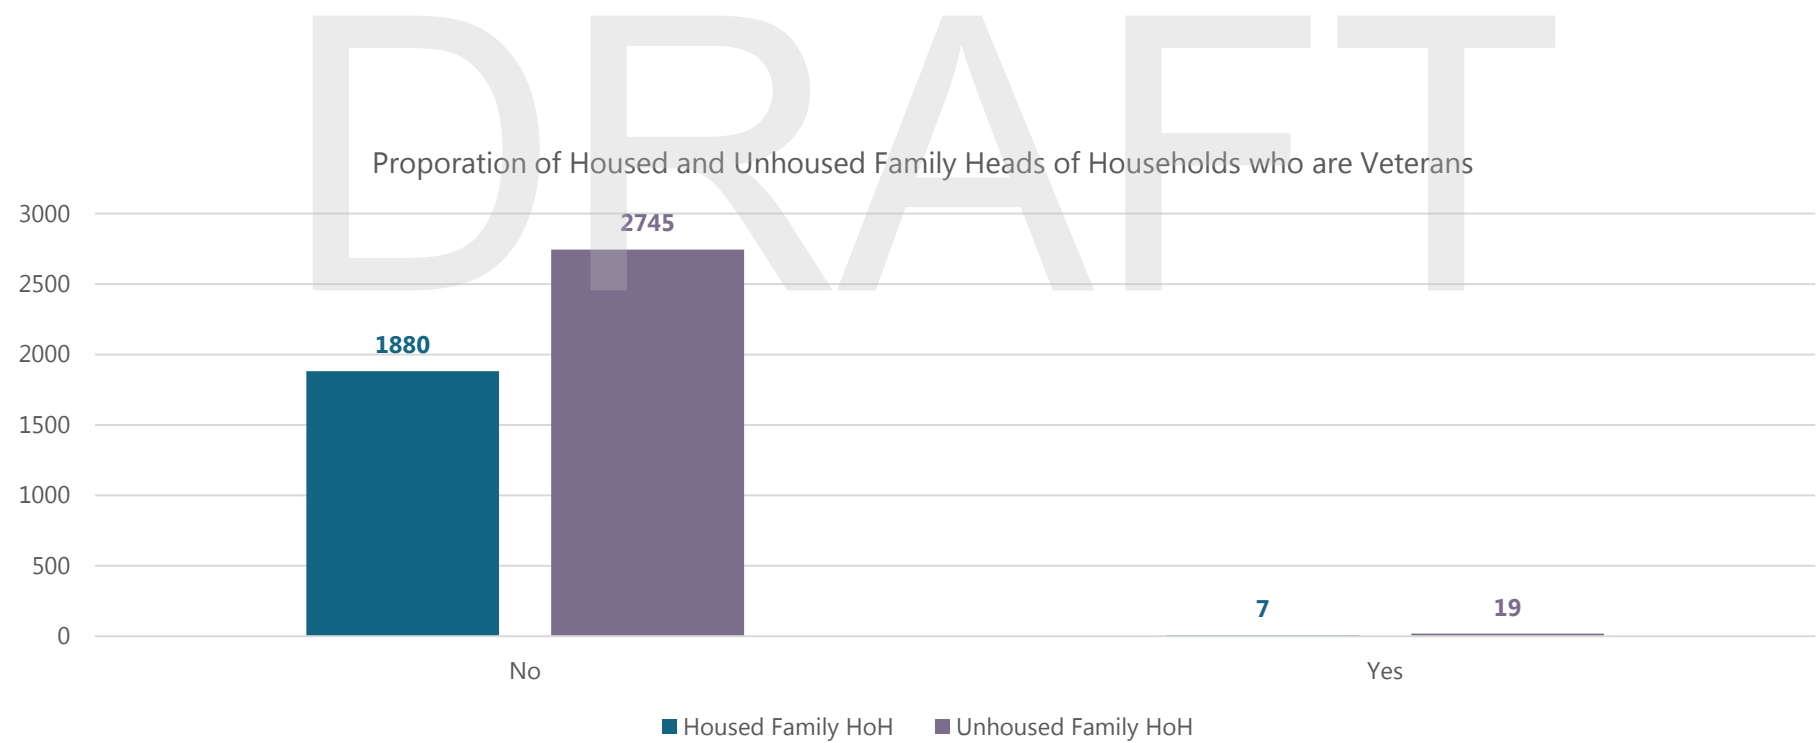

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Veteran Status – Adult Heads of households

- Veterans make up a similar proportion of the housed and unhoused adult population (8% and 7% respectively).
- The majority of adult heads of households, regardless of housing status, are not veterans.

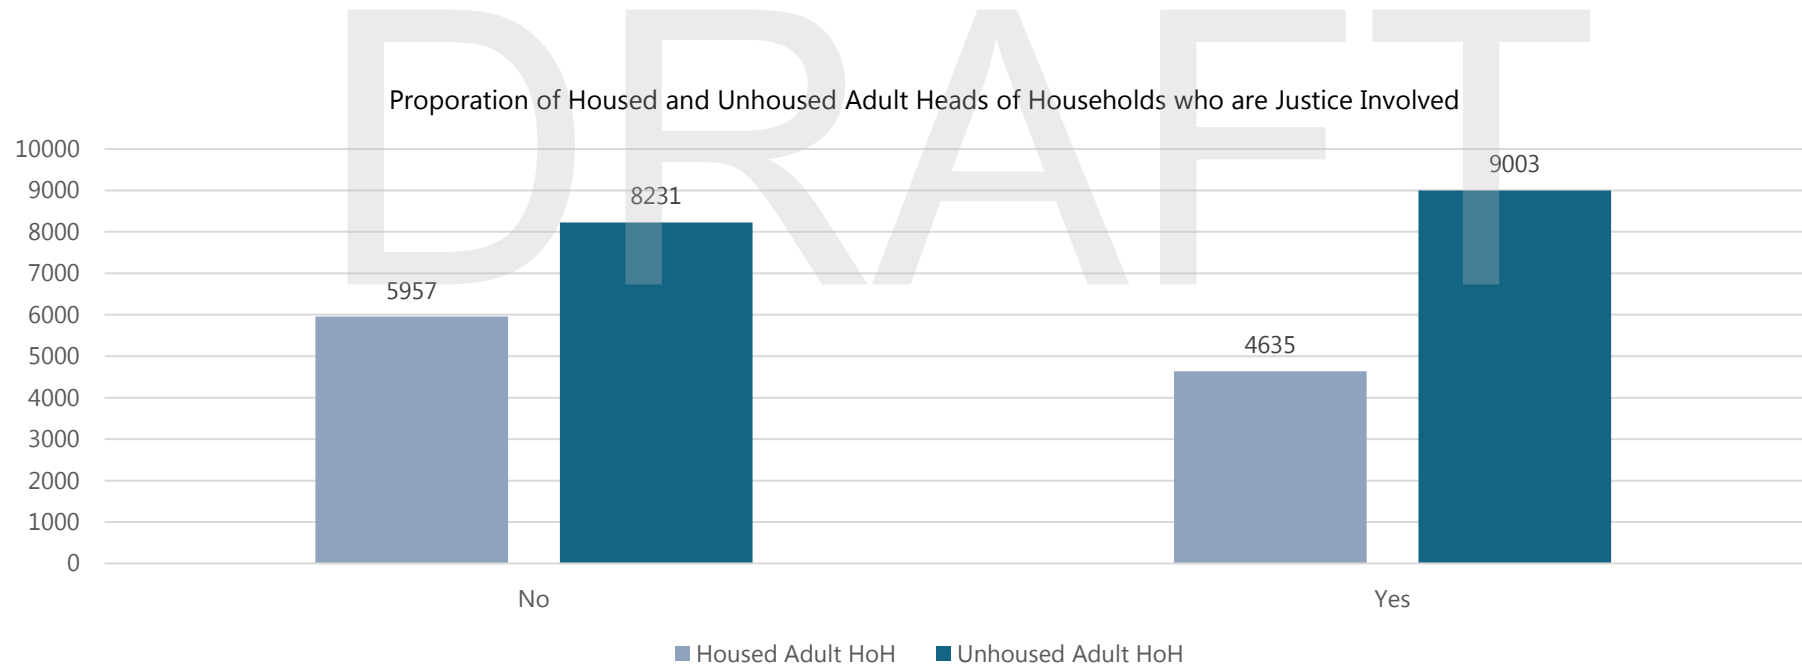

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Veteran Status – Family Heads of households

- Veterans make up a similar proportion of the housed and unhoused family population (0.4% and 0.7% respectively).
- The majority of family heads of households, regardless of housing status, are not veterans.

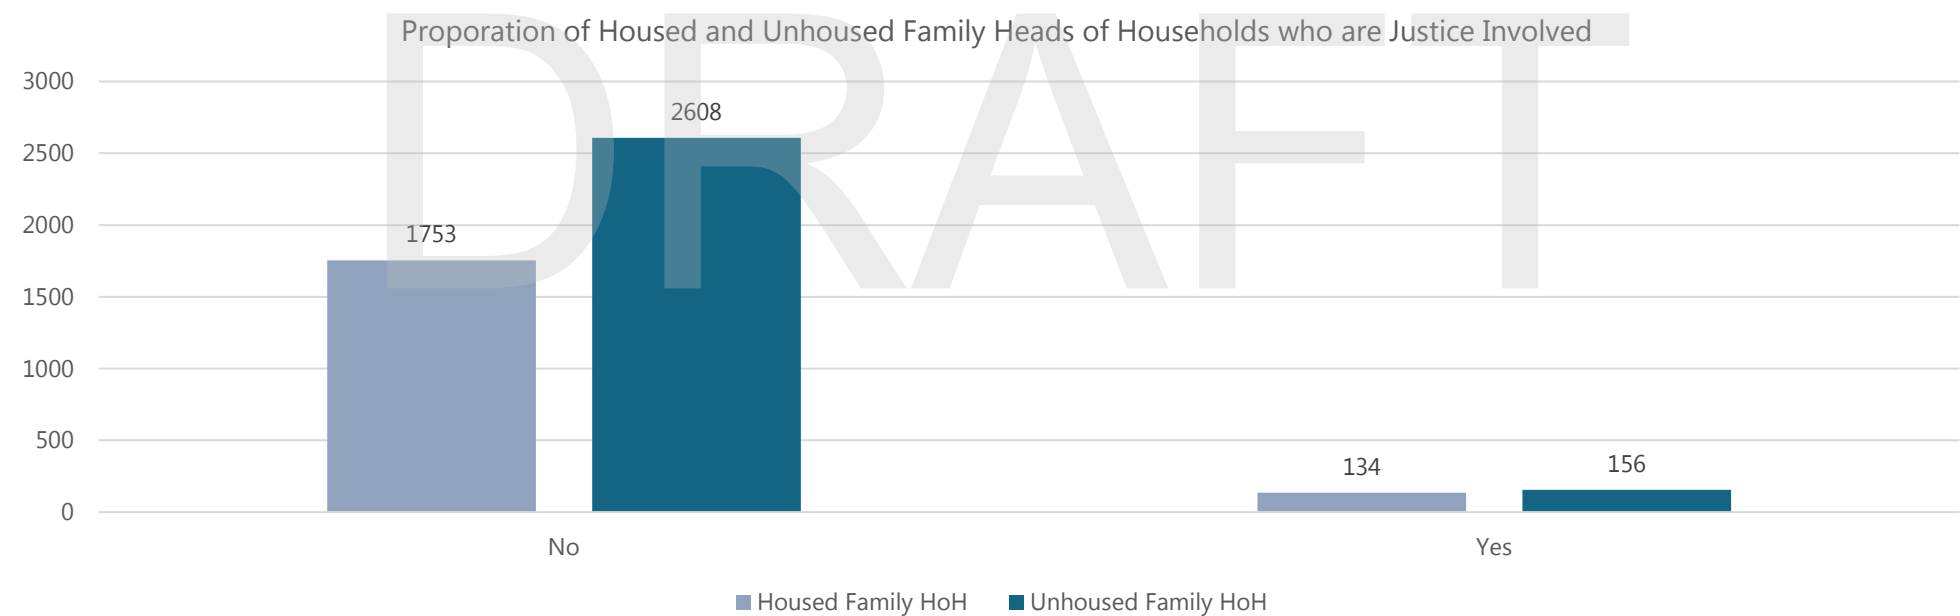

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Justice Involved – Adult Heads of households

- Regardless of housing status, nearly half of Single Adults are justice-involved.
- 44% of housed adult heads of households and 52% of unhoused adult heads of households are justice involved.

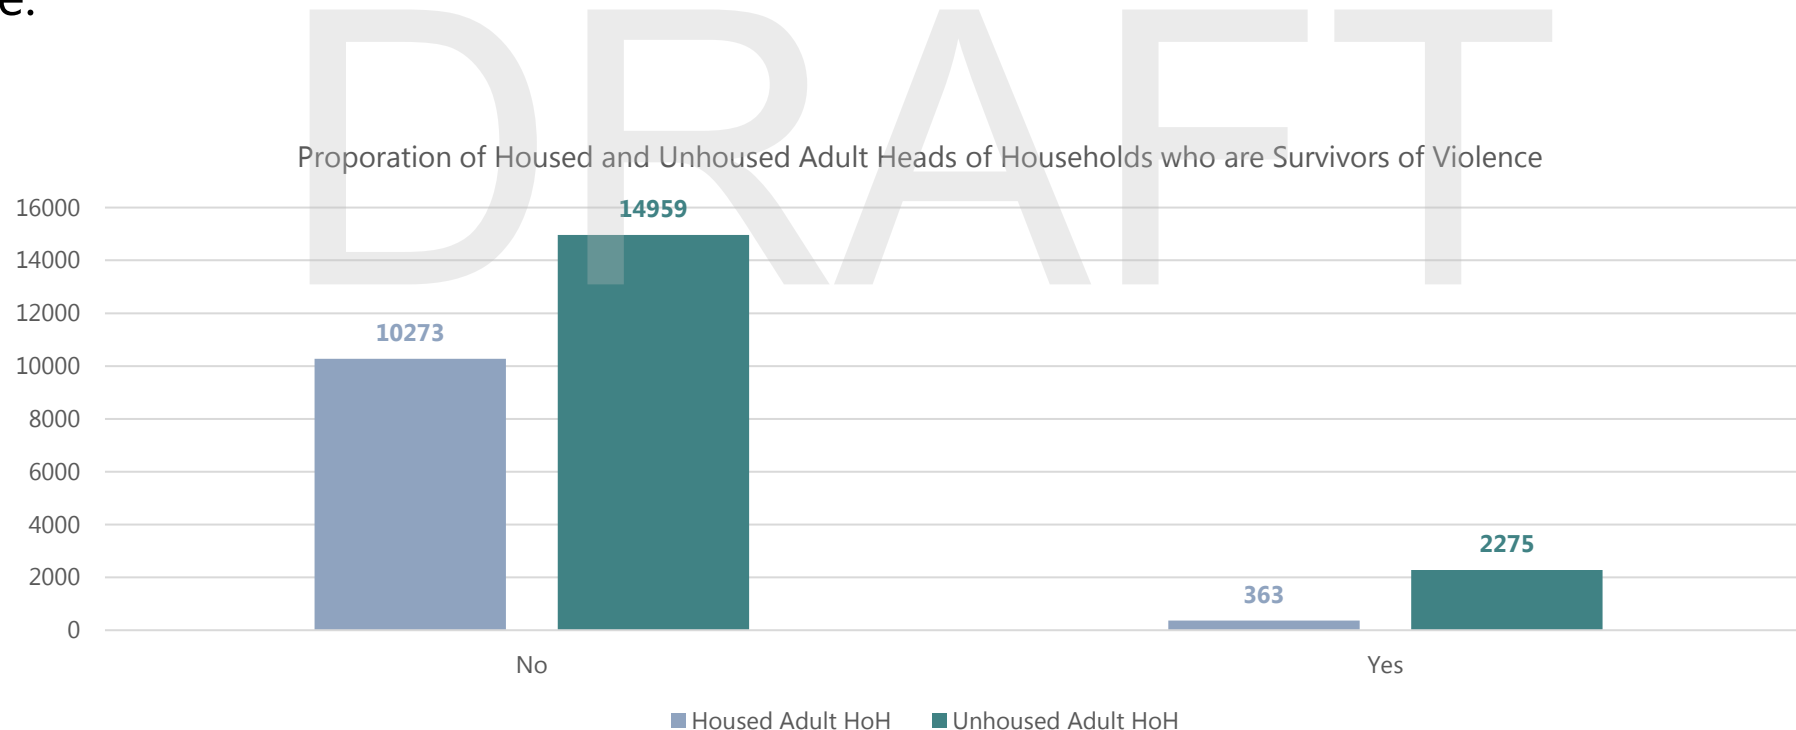

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Justice Involved – Family Heads of households

- The vast majority of family heads of households, regardless of housing status, are not justice involved.

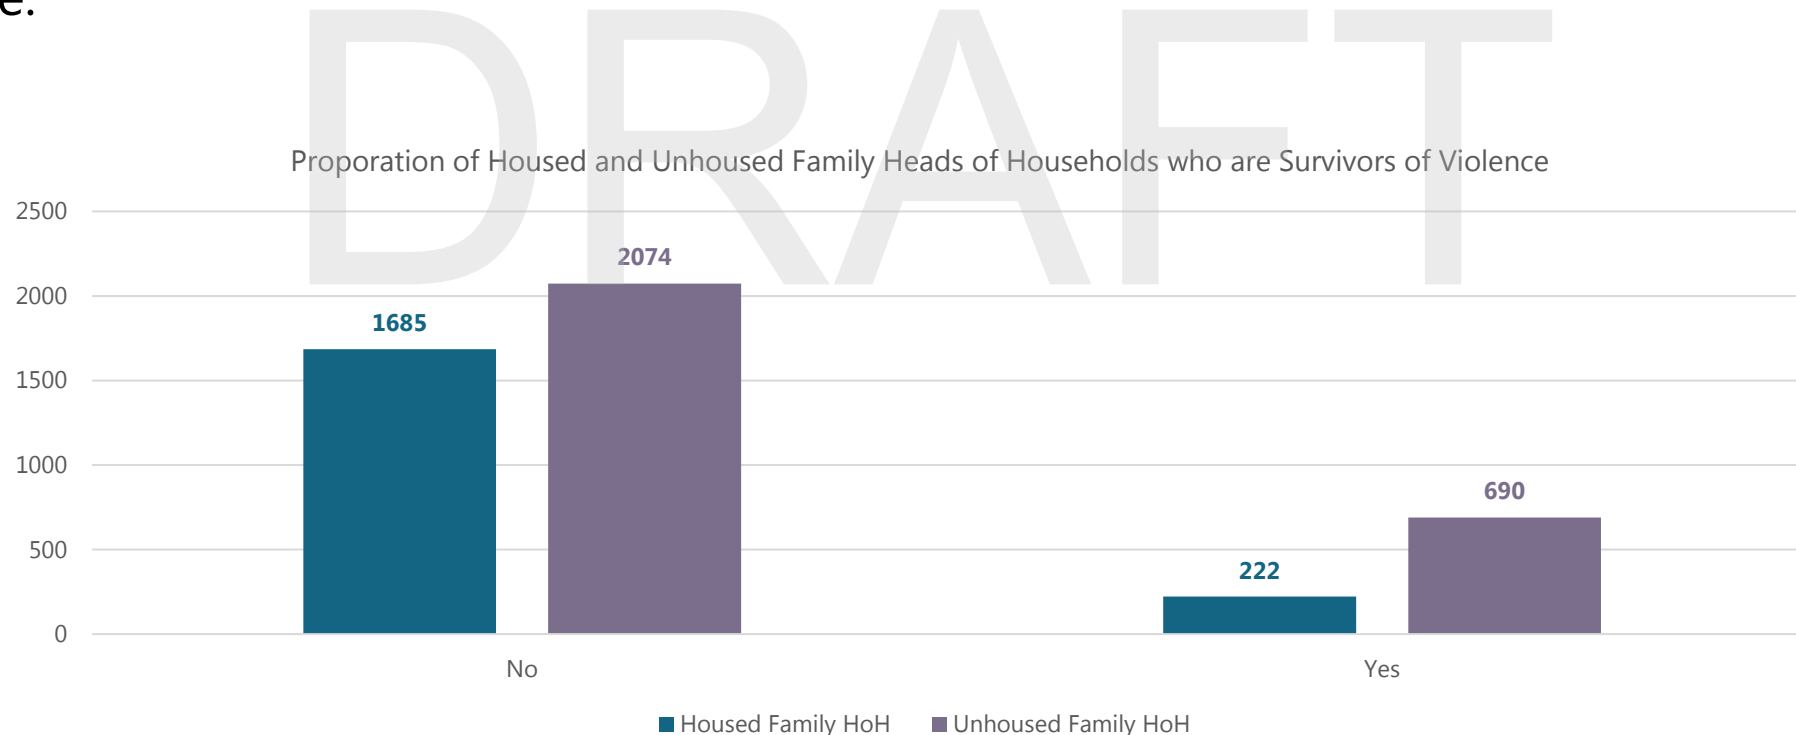

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Survivors of Violence – Adult Heads of households

- More unhoused adult heads of households (13%) are survivors of violence than housed adult heads of households (3%).
- The majority of adult heads of households, regardless of housing status, are not survivors of violence.

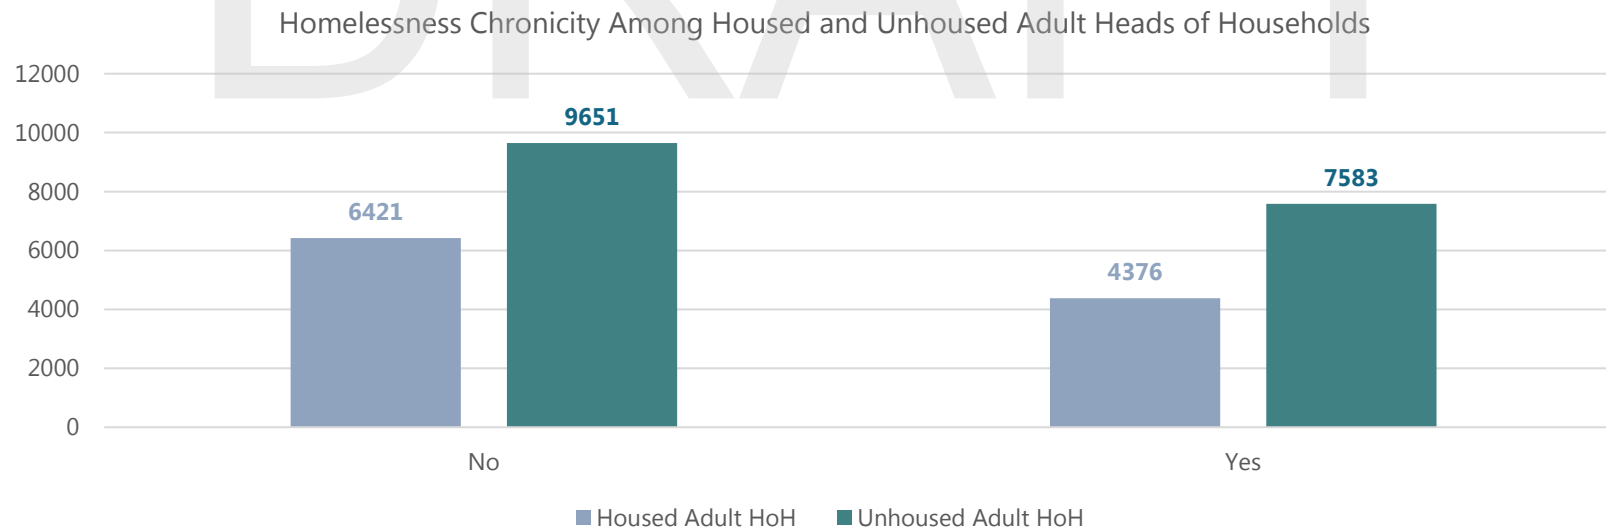

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Survivors of Violence – Family Heads of households

- More unhoused family heads of households (25%) are survivors of violence than housed adult heads of households (12%).
- The majority of family heads of households, regardless of housing status, are not survivors of violence.

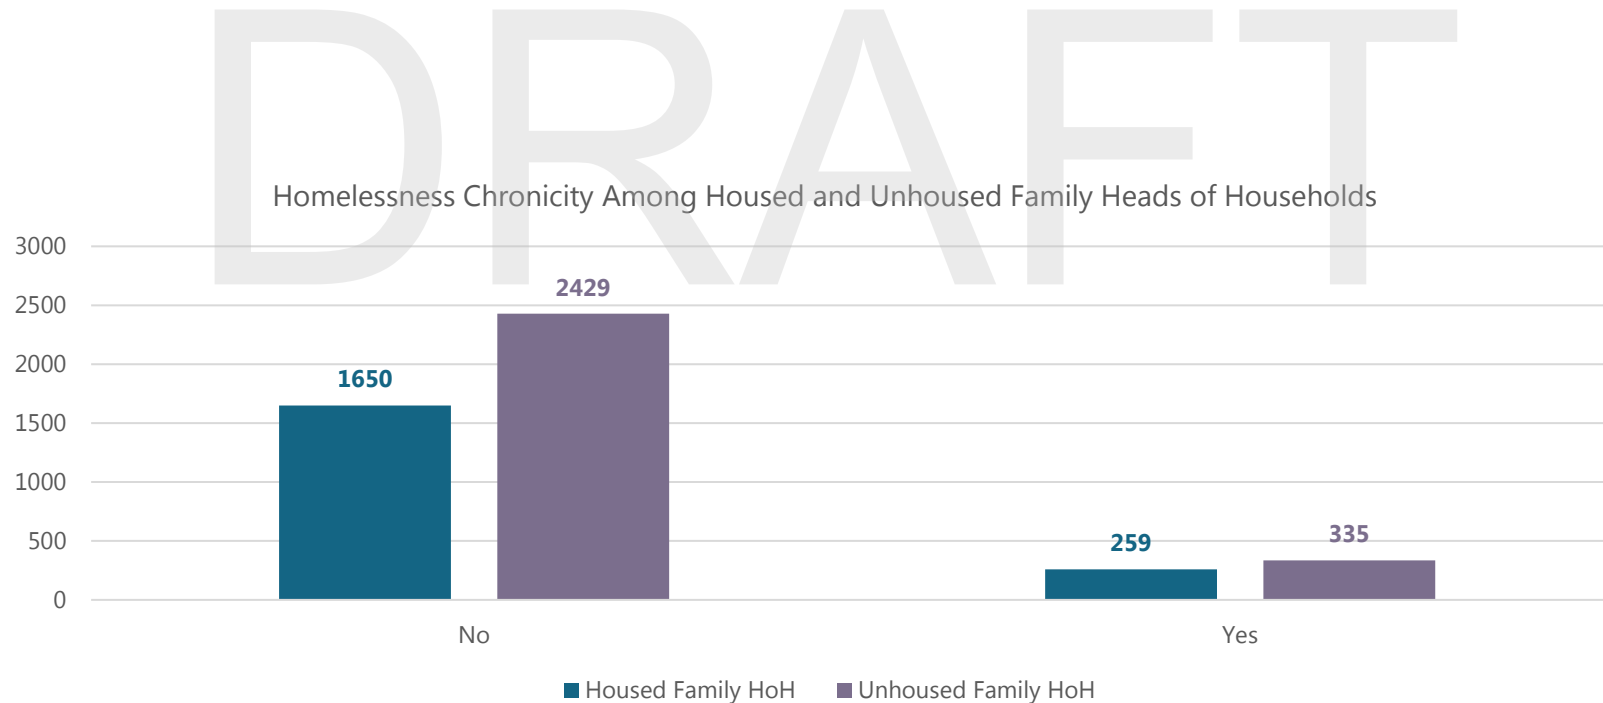

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Chronic Homelessness – Adult Heads of Households

- The majority of adult heads of households, regardless of housing status, reported they were not chronically homeless.
- The housed adult population had a slightly higher rate of clients reporting they were not chronically homeless compared to the unhoused adult population.

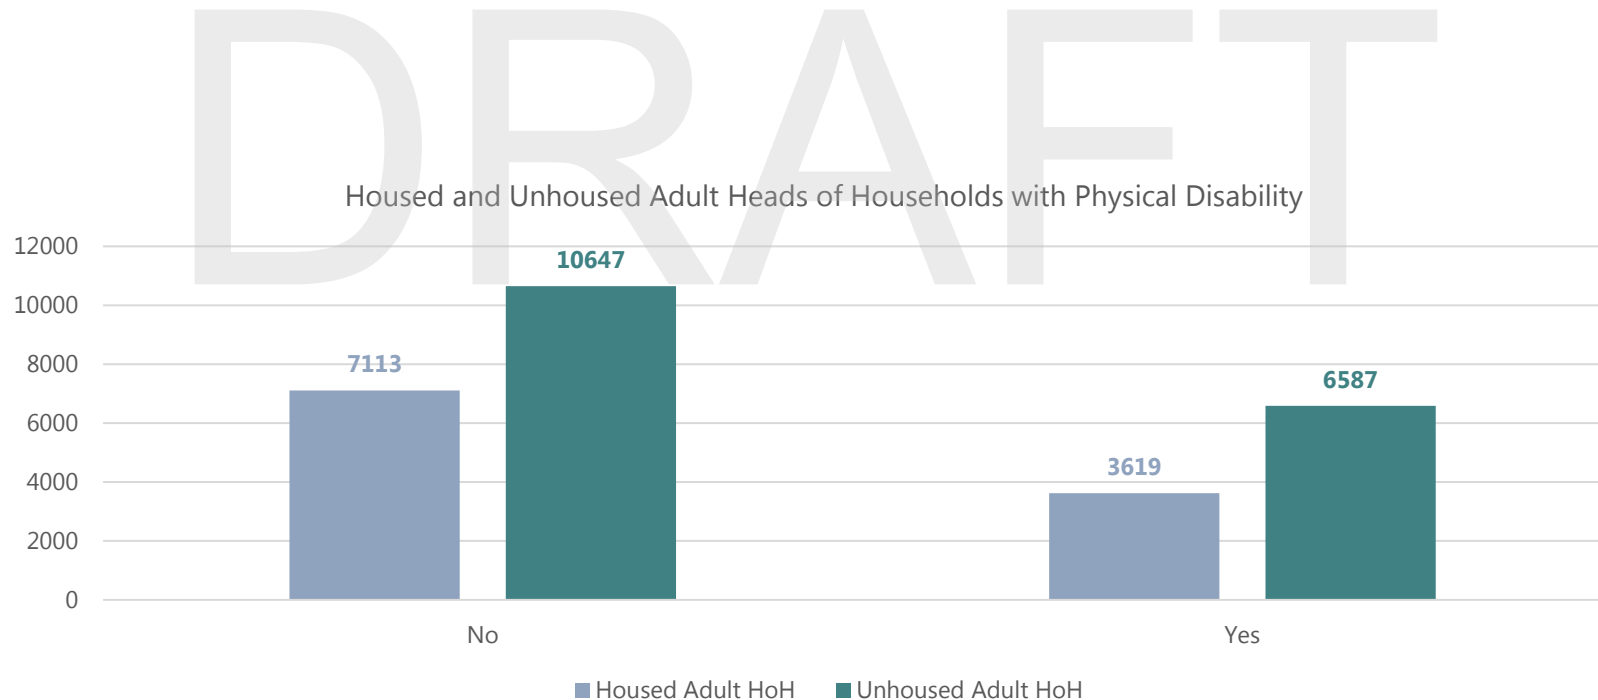

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Chronic Homelessness – Family Heads of Households

- A large majority of family heads of households, regardless of housing status, reported they were not chronically homeless.
- For clients who did report they were chronically homeless, slightly more were housed than unhoused.

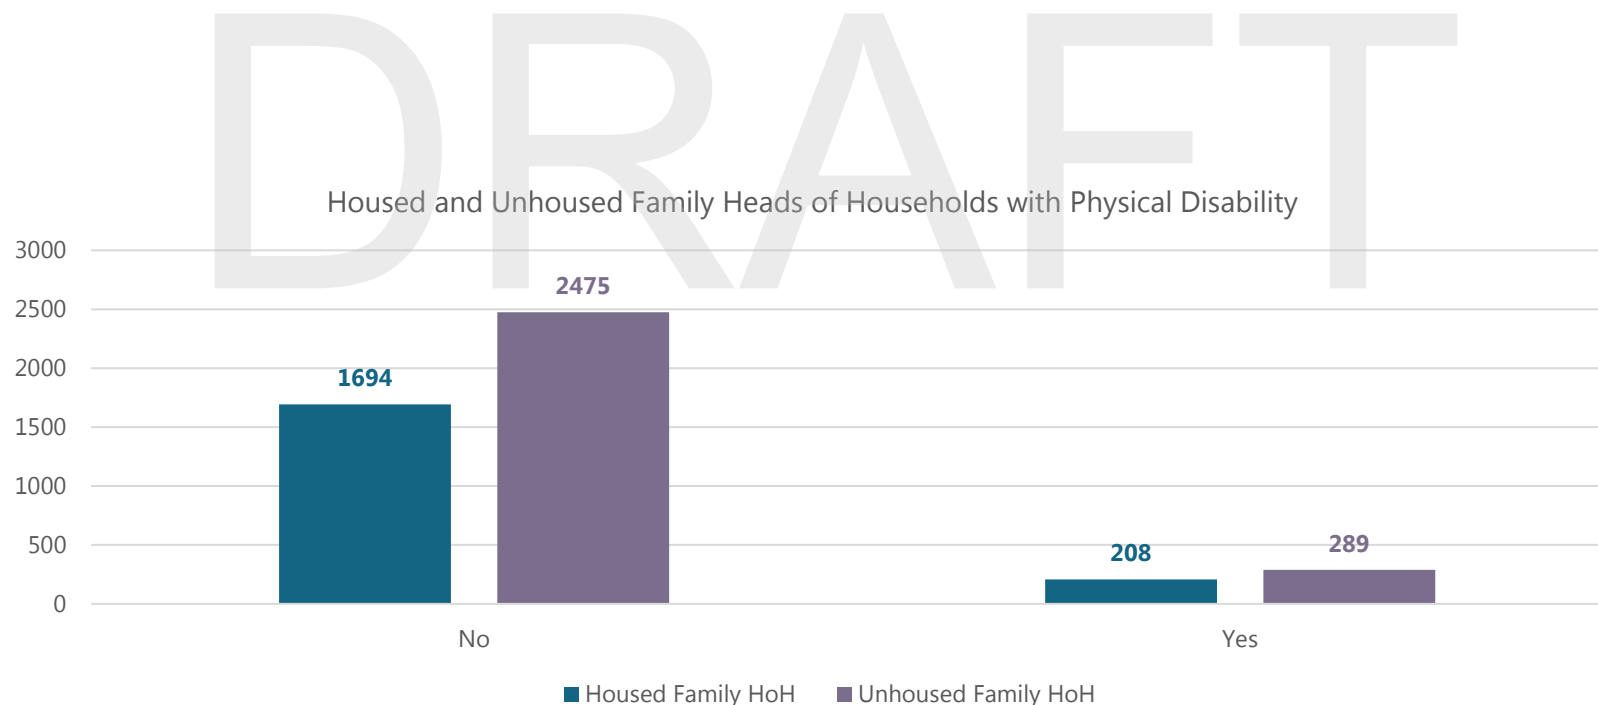

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Physical Disability – Adult Heads of Households

- The majority of adult heads of households, regardless of housing status, reported they did not have a physical disability.
- For clients who did report they had a physical disability, slightly more were unhoused than housed.

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Physical Disability – Family Heads of Households

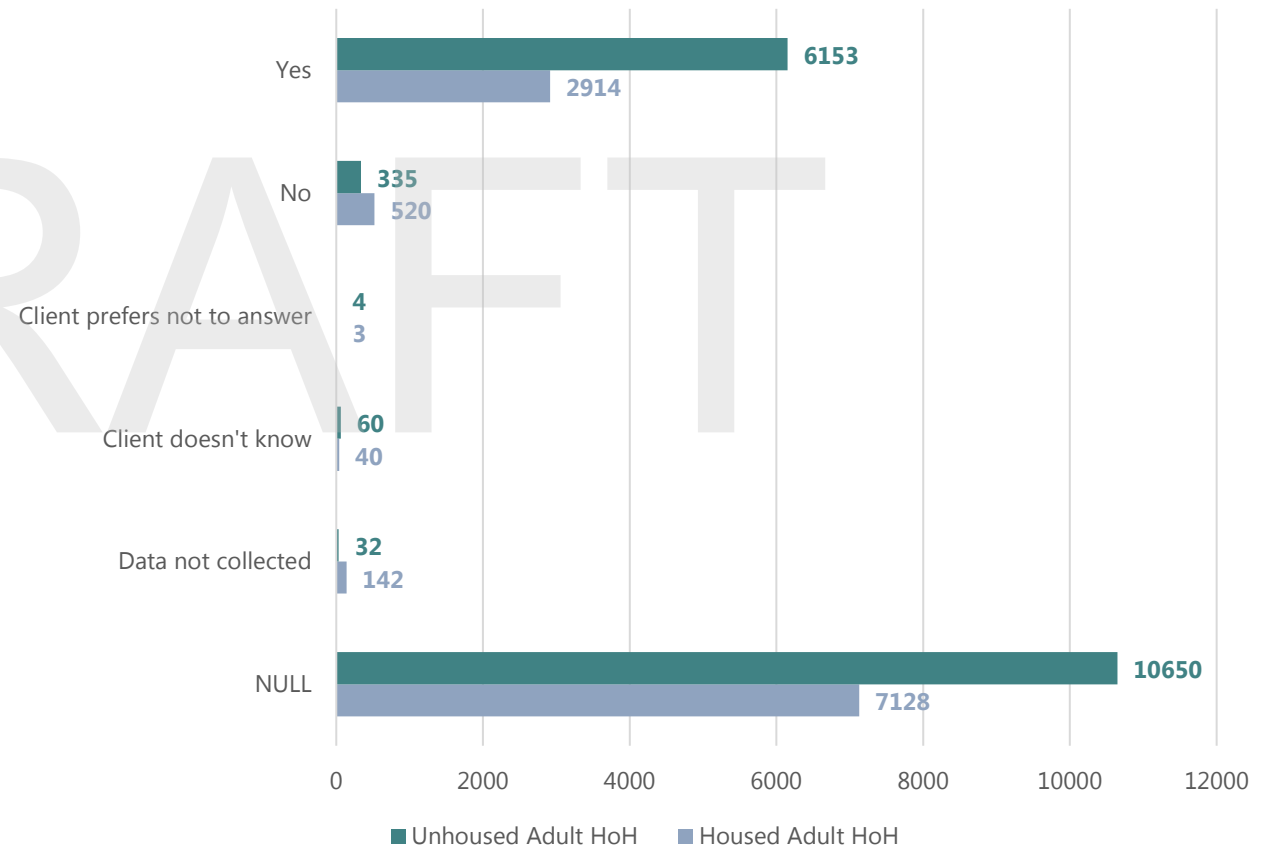

- A large majority of family heads of households, regardless of housing status, reported they did not have a physical disability.
- For clients who did report they had a physical disability, slightly more were housed than unhoused.

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Long-Term Physical Disability – Adult Heads of Households

- “NULL” was the highest reported response for both the housed and unhoused adult population.
- More unhoused adult heads of households reported they had a long-term physical disability than housed adult heads of households.

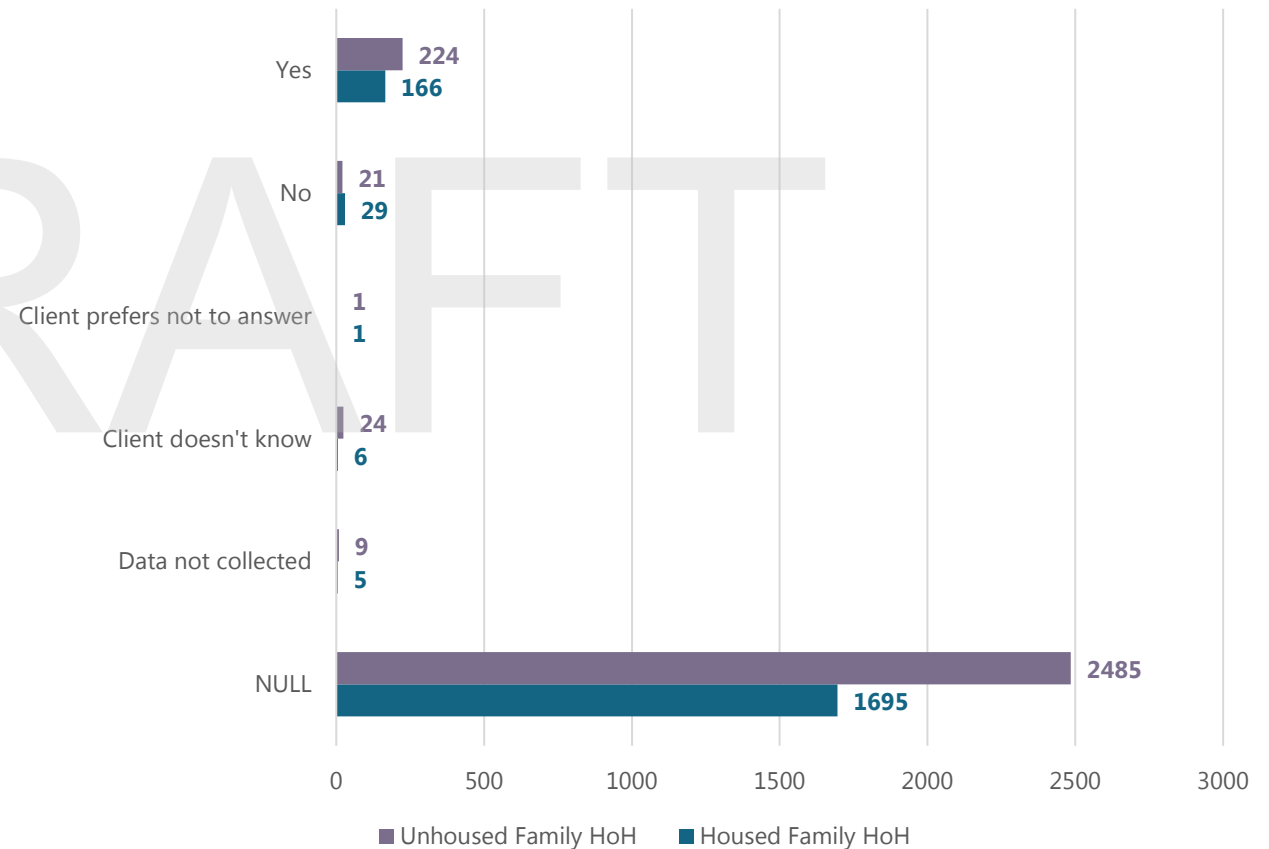

Housed and Unhoused Adult Heads of Households with Long-Term Physical Disability

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Long Term Physical Disability – Family Heads of Households

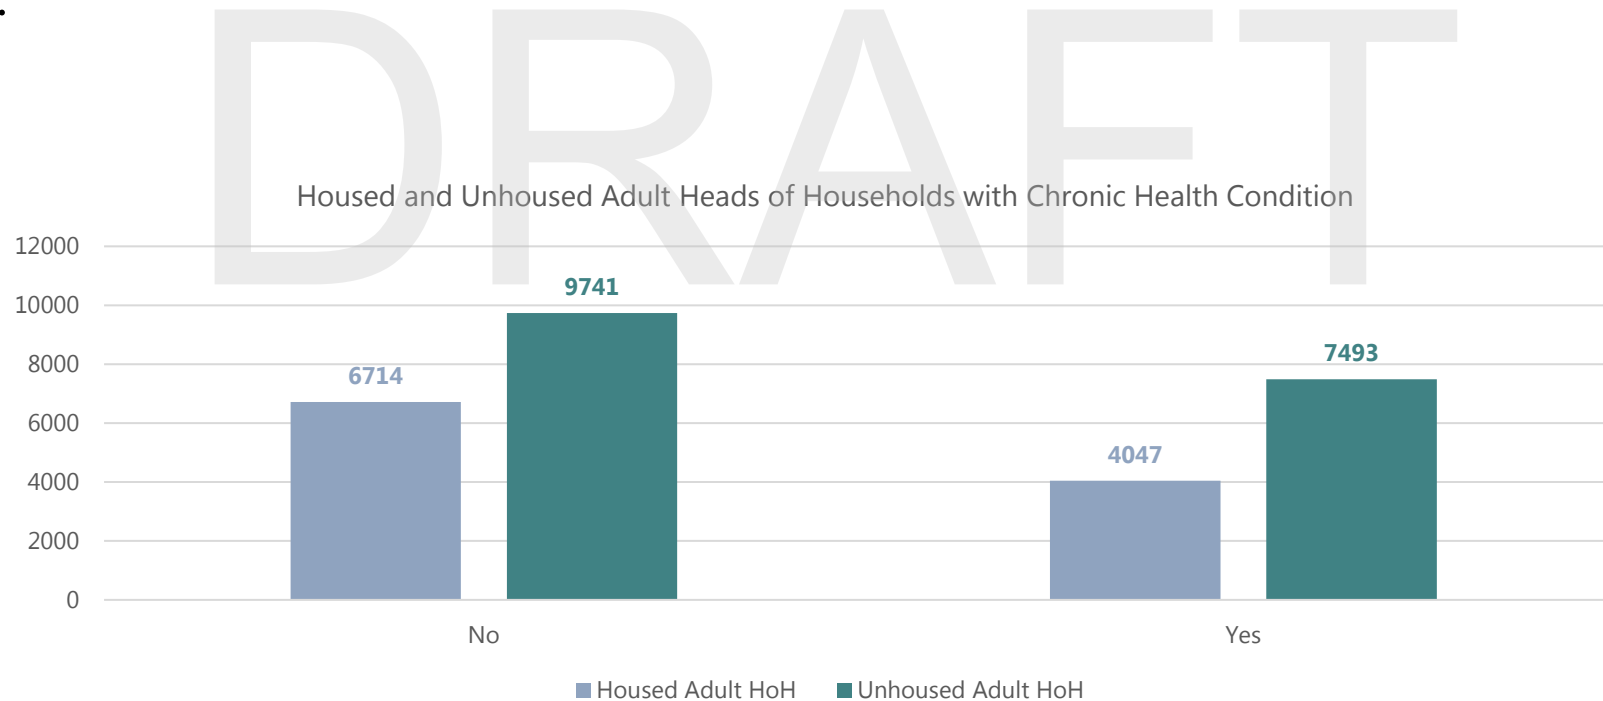

- “NULL” was the highest reported response for both the housed and unhoused family population.
- A similar percentage of unhoused family heads of households reported they had a long-term physical disability as housed adult heads of households.

Housed and Unhoused Family Heads of Households with Long-Term Physical Disability

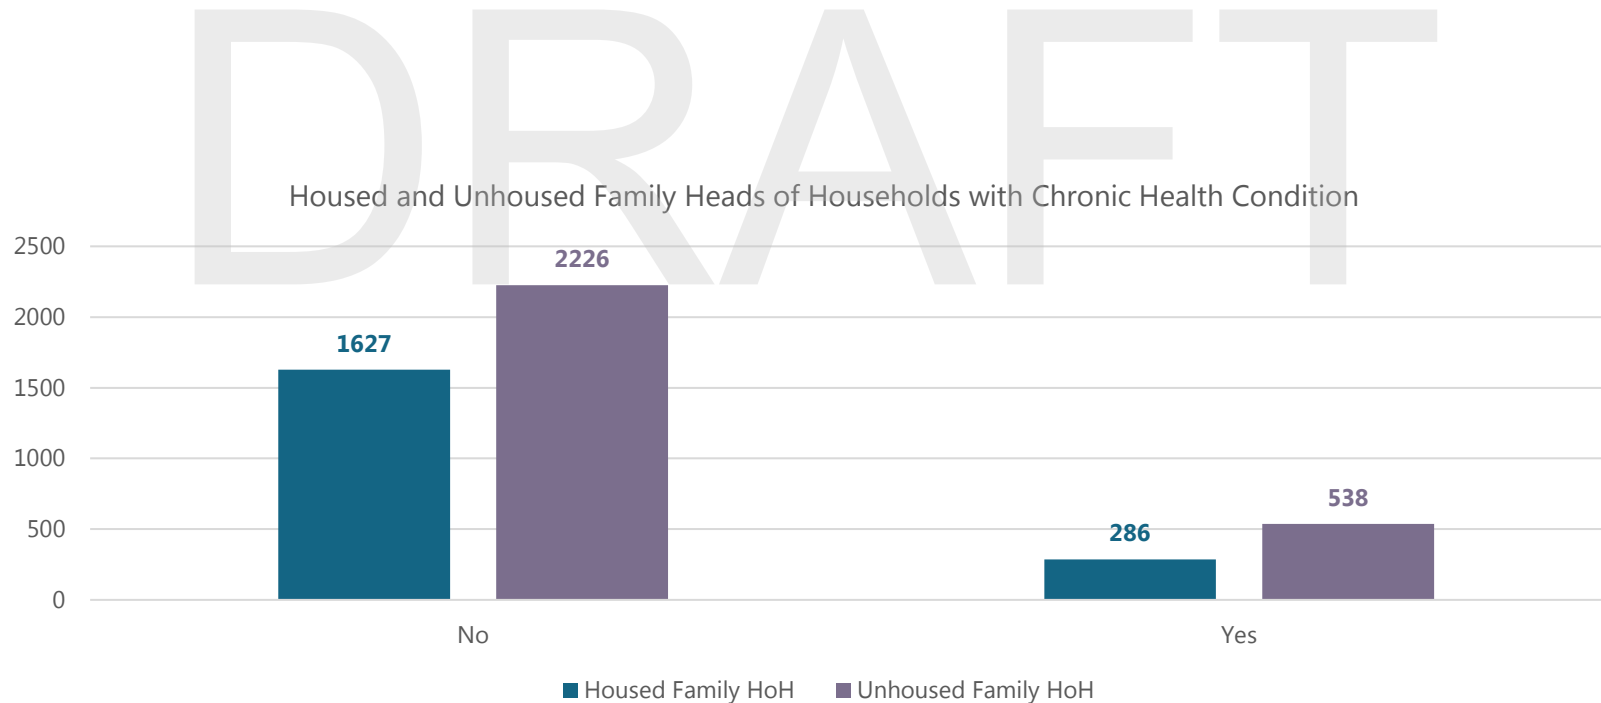

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Chronic Health – Adult Heads of Households

- The majority of adult heads of households, regardless of housing status, reported they did not have a chronic health condition.
- For clients who did report they had a chronic health condition, slightly more were unhoused than housed.

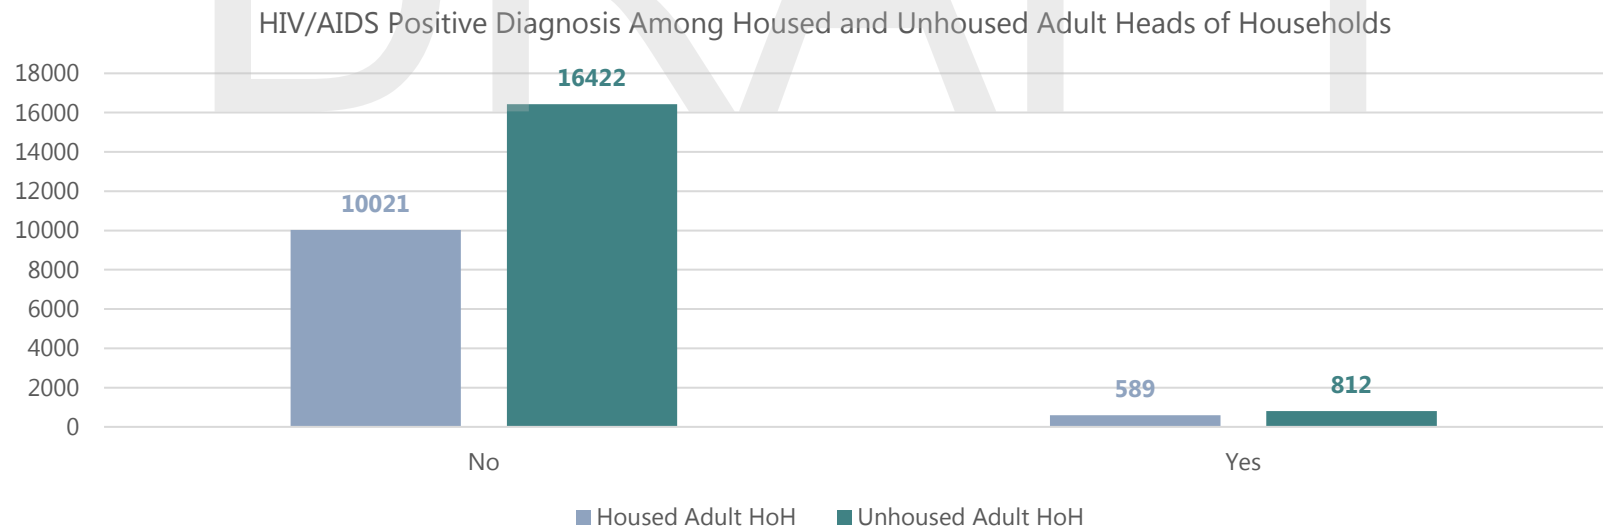

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Chronic Health – Family Heads of Households

- A large majority of family heads of households, regardless of housing status, reported they did not have a chronic health condition.
- For clients who did report they had a chronic health condition, slightly more were unhoused than housed.

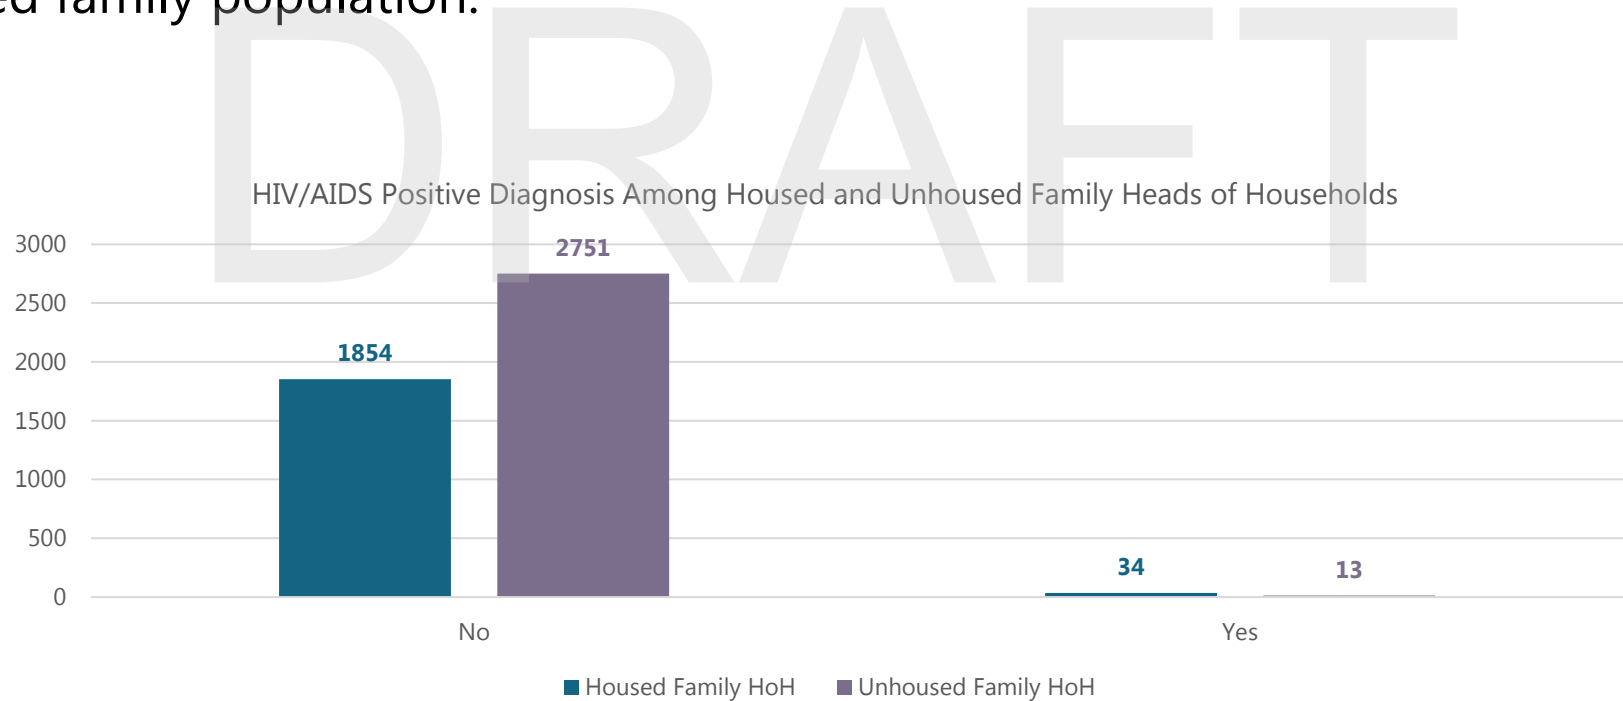

2024 HSH Administrative Data: HIV/AIDS Positive Diagnosis – Adult Heads of Households

- An overwhelming majority of adult heads of households, regardless of housing status, reported they did not have a positive HIV/AIDS diagnosis.
- The percentage of clients who did report they have HIV/AIDS is similar across the housed and unhoused adult population.

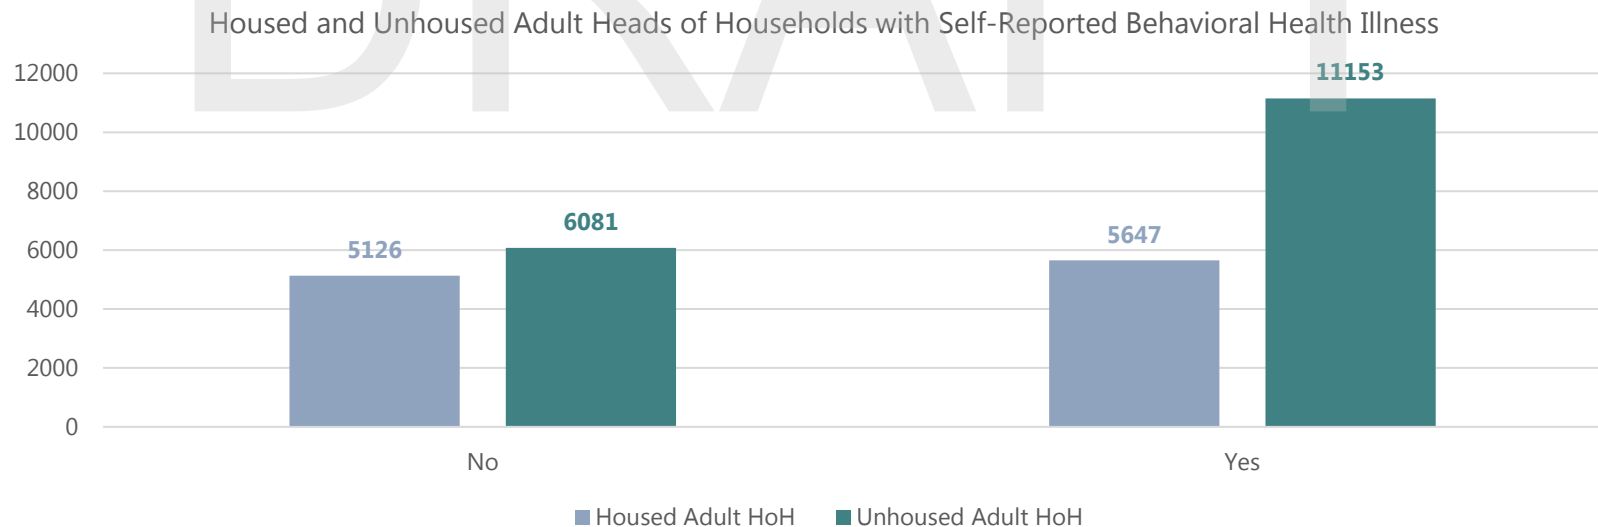

2024 HSH Administrative Data: HIV/AIDS Positive Diagnosis – Family Heads of Households

- An overwhelming majority of family heads of households, regardless of housing status, reported they did not have a positive HIV/AIDS diagnosis.
- The percentage of clients who did report they have HIV/AIDS is similar across the housed and unhoused family population.

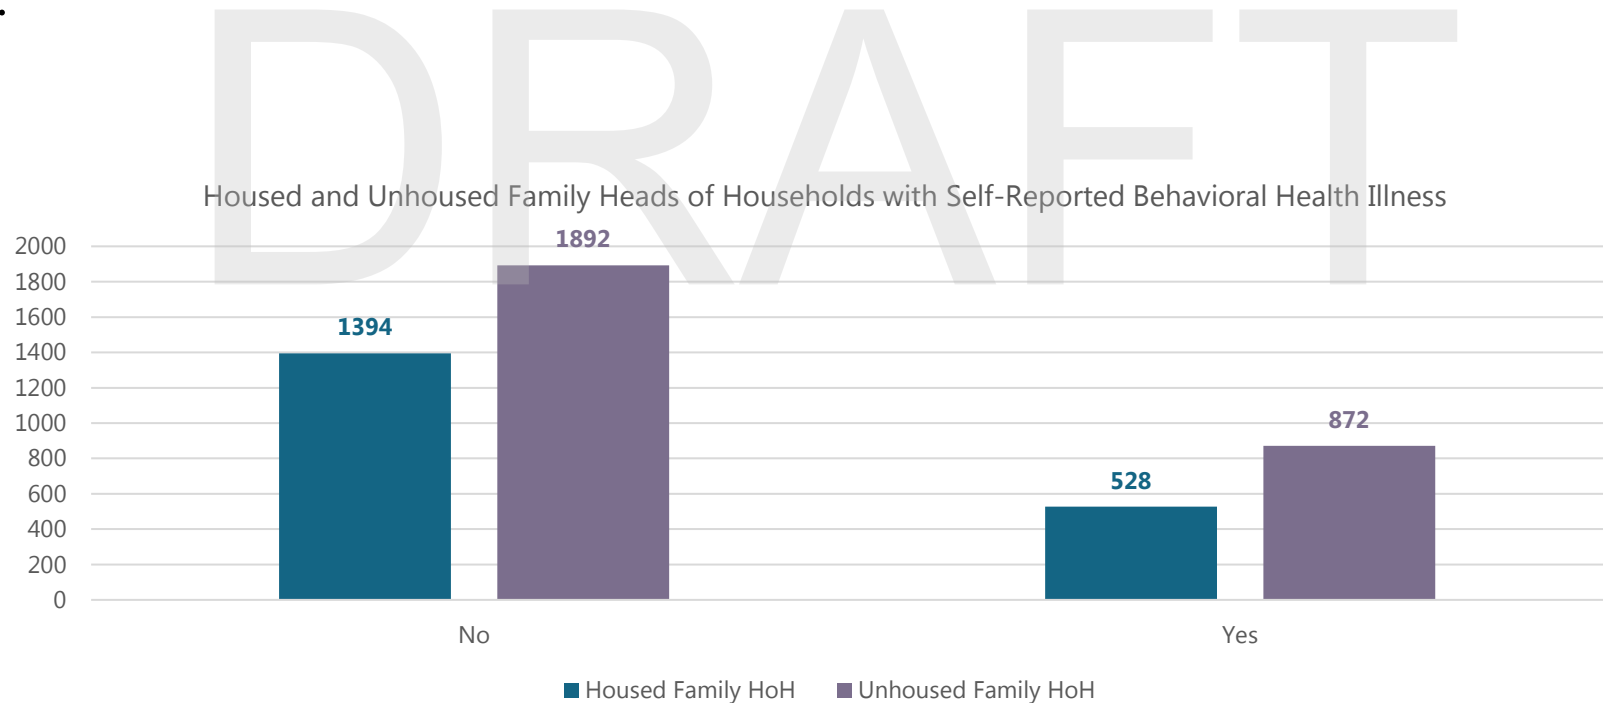

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Behavioral Health – Adult Heads of Households

- The majority of adult heads of households, regardless of housing status, reported they had a behavioral health illness.
- The unhoused adult population had a higher rate of clients reporting they had a behavioral health illness compared to the housed adult population.

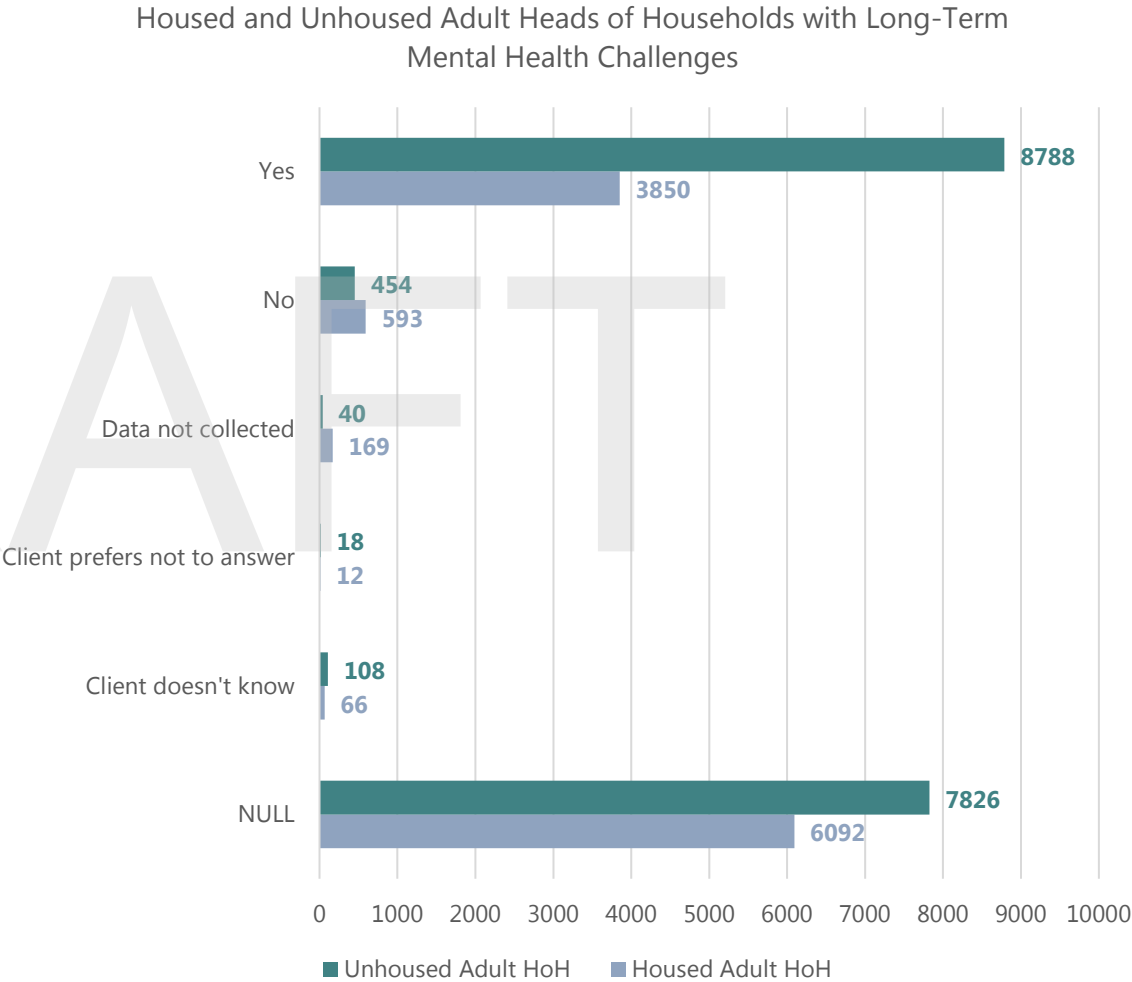

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Behavioral Health – Family Heads of Households

- The majority of family heads of households, regardless of housing status, reported they did not have a behavioral health illness.
- For clients who did report they had a behavioral health illness, slightly more were unhoused than housed.

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Mental Health – Adult Heads of households

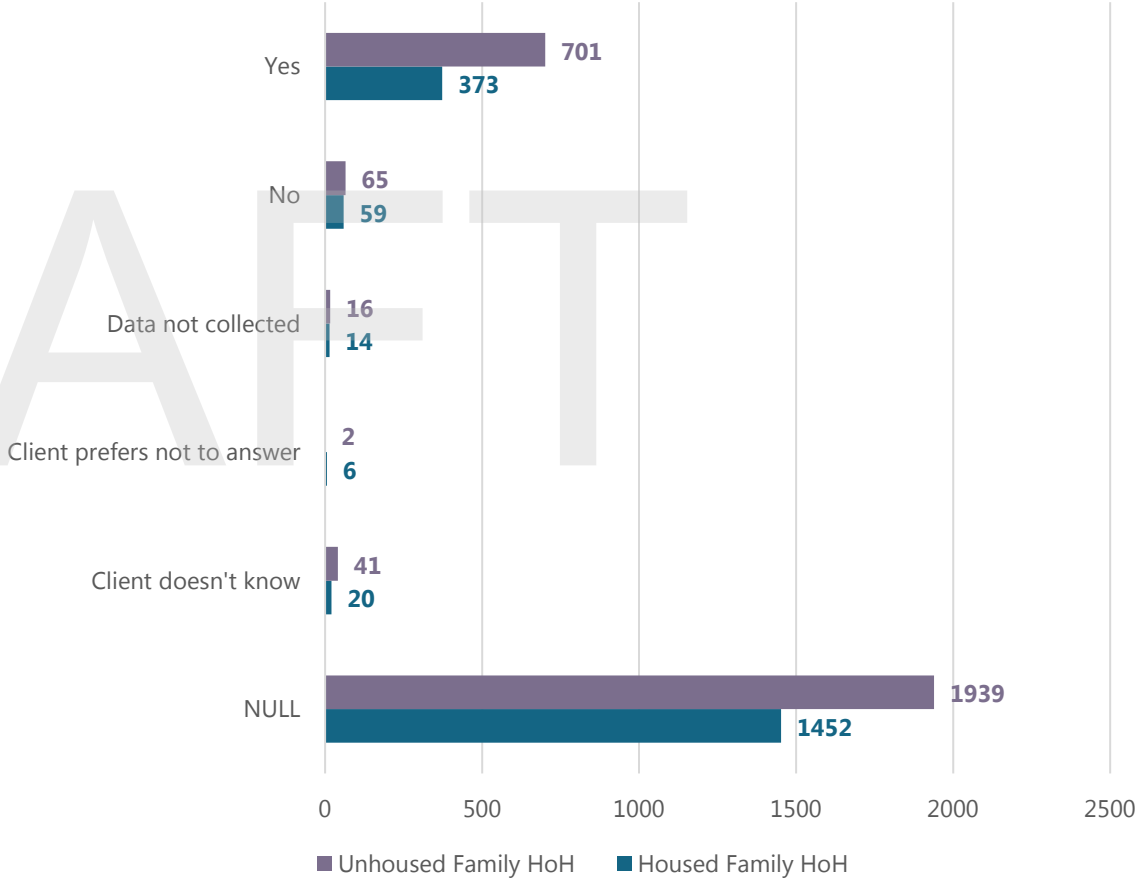

- Unhoused adult heads of households had a higher rate of long-term mental health challenges than housed adult heads of households.
- Note, “null” responses account for 58% of housed adult data and 45% of unhoused adult data

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Mental Health – Family Heads of households

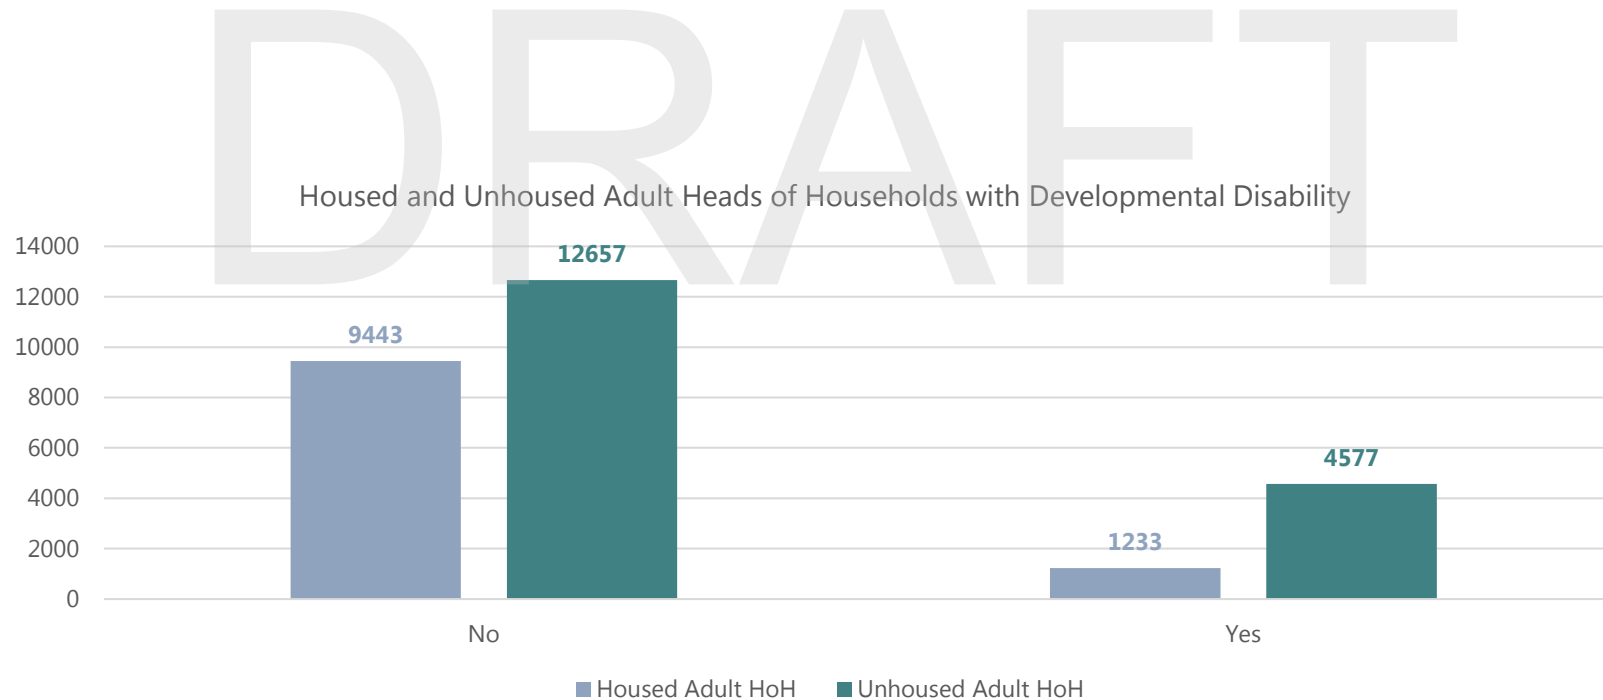

- Unhoused family heads of households had a higher rate of long-term mental health challenges than housed family heads of households.
- Note, “null” responses account for 77% of housed family data and 70% of unhoused family data

Housed and Unhoused Family Heads of Households with Long-Term Mental Health Challenges

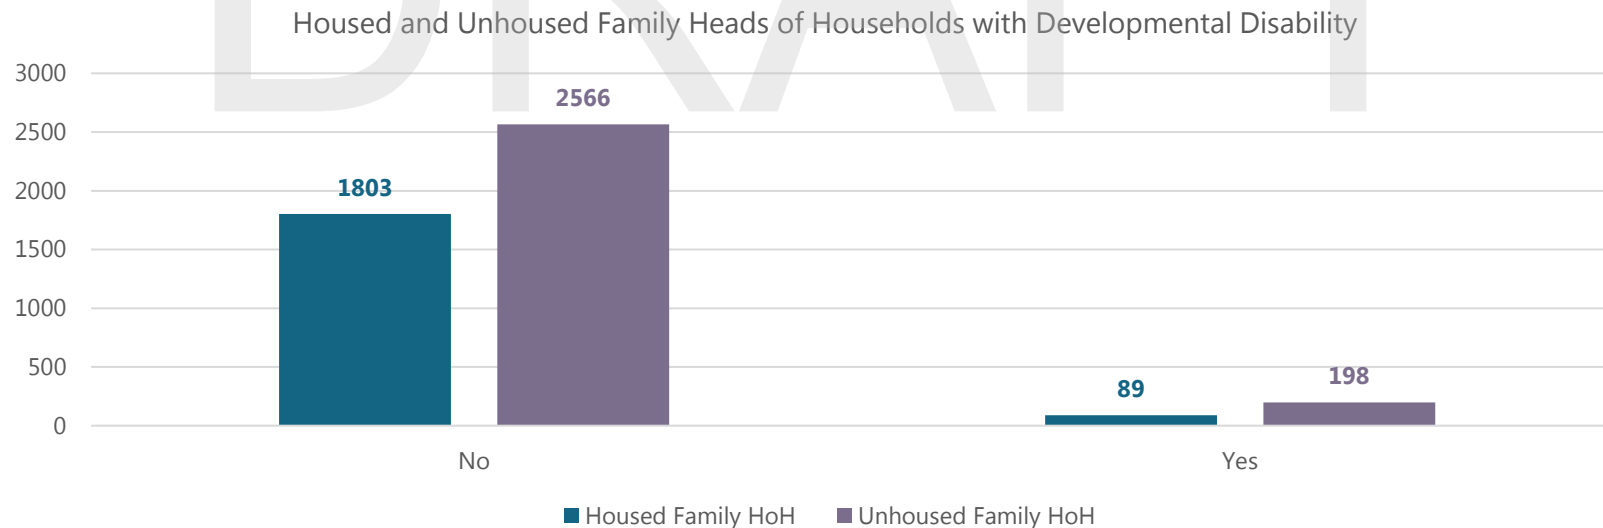

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Developmental Disability – Adult Heads of Households

- The majority of adult heads of households, regardless of housing status, reported they did not have a developmental disability.
- For clients who did report they had a developmental disability, more were unhoused than housed.

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Developmental Disability – Family Heads of Households

- The majority of family heads of households, regardless of housing status, reported they did not have a developmental disability.
- The percentage of clients who did report they have a developmental disability is similar across the housed and unhoused family population.

2024 HSH Administrative Data: Data Note

In these instances, “null” was the highest or second highest reported response:

| Data Point | Housed Adult Population | Housed Family Population | Unhoused Adult Population | Unhoused Family Population |
|---|-------------------------|--------------------------|---------------------------|----------------------------|
| Long Term Physical Disabilities by Individual | 67% | 90% | 62% | 90% |
| Long Term Mental Health by Individual | 58% | 77% | 45% | 70% |