The Art Vendor Advisory Committee will only screen two crafts per meeting. If you want to screen for additional crafts, you will need to complete a new application after you have been approved for two. How many crafts are you applying for? Example: Beaded jewelry and watercolor paintings on canvas are two crafts; ceramic pendants and ceramic bowls are one craft (Ceramic items)

Please list your one craft item to be screened:

Are you a current art vendor adding an additional craft?

A family unit is two (2) or more persons jointly engaged in the creation of an art or craft item. Is this an application for a Family Unit?

Artist Biography (Please provide a short biography about yourself and your craft):

1. Describe the items you plan to sell and how each type of item is made. Please be as detailed as possible. Example: I plan to sell digital photographic prints of artwork that I designed in Illustrator and printed on cardstock using a home printer.

2. Where did you learn your craft? Did you take a class or learn on your own?

Please provide up to two (2) images of your craft in process. The images should include you demonstrating your process. See an example here

Handwrapped crystal necklaces

No

No

I have always been an artist growing up since I was a kid, exploring different arts. I took art classes growing up in school and always loved doing art in my free time. I love drawing, tattooing, painting and doing anything creative with my hands. How I am making hand wrapped crystal necklaces from crystals I find on the beach.

I sell hand picked crystal necklaces that I wrap with wire and put on a necklace chain.
