	Prop B will ensure that a San Francisco Public Bank is fiscally responsible, independent from political influence, and serves San Francisco's priorities. A Public Bank puts the people of San Francisco over private profits to finance the things we need. The shareholders would be the people of San Francisco, so we benefit not only from our bank's profits but also the San Francisco projects it supports. Prop B is a crucial step in creating a Public Bank. A Public Bank will provide affordable loans for: • Affordable housing development, • Affordable homeownership, • Small business development, • Environmental sustainability, and • Environmental justice. Prop B ensures that the Public Bank will be run by banking professionals, not politicians, and creates a public oversight body, so every San Franciscan has the opportunity to monitor and provide input. A public bank is about making sure San Franciscans' money benefits San Franciscans. Passing Prop B now allows us to take advantage of the time-limited state law that enables local cities to create public banks. A public bank creates a powerful new tool to address some of our city's most urgent priorities. Public banking is a proven development model. Globally 25% of banking assets are held in public banks, and Germany holds 40% of its banking assets in public banks. Prop B establishes the purpose and structure of a public bank. Prop B is not a tax, and will not raise taxes for San Franciscans.
