NO ON D: DON'T ROB OUR RIGHT TO VOTE. Don't be fooled. This isn't about streamlining or state standards. Prop D takes away rights San Franciscans have held for 125 years: to put citizen initiatives on the ballot. Robbing it away. San Francisco was the first California city to have this right. Now, wealthy tech billionaires are spending millions to take it away. They would quadruple the signatures required from 10,600 to 42,500, a limit so high only the very wealthy can reach it. Follow the money. Wealthy interests can afford to pay one million dollars to collect 42,500 signatures. Neighborhood groups, labor unions and community advocates will be priced out. We'll lose our voice in the democratic process. 10,600 signatures is tough and fair. Since 1932, around 10,600 signatures have been required to qualify a measure. It's not easy: citizen-initiatives are only 15% of all ballot measures. But when City Hall ignores us, citizens have the power to act. A check and balance. 42,500 signatures is out of reach. It will be impossible for citizen-led, grassroots organizations to qualify a measure. After 125 years, it will silence the voices of some San Franciscans forever. Citizens' initiatives make a difference. They have increased the minimum wage, ensured large corporations pay their fair share of taxes, provided legal aid for renters facing eviction, banned corrupt contributions to politicians, passed Sunshine laws, established rent control, and funded schools, childcare and affordable housing. After 125 years of direct democracy, don't let them rob it away. Vote NO on D. 	NO ON D: DON'T ROB OUR RIGHT TO VOTE. Don't be fooled. This isn't about streamlining or state standards. Prop D takes away rights San Franciscans have held for 125 years: to put citizen initiatives on the ballot. Robbing it away. San Francisco was the first California city to have this right. Now, wealthy tech billionaires are spending millions to take it away. They would quadruple the signatures required from 10,600 to 42,500, a limit so high only the very wealthy can reach it. Follow the money. Wealthy interests can afford to pay one million dollars to collect 42,500 signatures. Neighborhood groups, labor unions and community advocates will be priced out. We'll lose our voice in the democratic process. 10,600 signatures is tough and fair. Since 1932, around 10,600 signatures have been required to qualify a measure. It's not easy: citizen-initiatives are only 16% of all ballot measures. But when City Hall ignores us, citizens have the power to act. A check and balance. 42,500 signatures is out of reach. It will be impossible for citizen-led, grassroots organizations to qualify a measure. After 125 years, it will silence the voices of some San Franciscans forever. Citizens' initiatives make a difference. They have increased the minimum wage, ensured large corporations pay their fair share of taxes, provided legal aid for renters facing eviction, banned corrupt contributions to politicians, passed Sunshine laws, established rent control, and funded schools, childcare and affordable housing. After 125 years of direct democracy, don't let them rob it away. Vote NO on D. 	NO ON D: DON'T ROB OUR RIGHT TO VOTE. Don't be fooled. This isn't about streamlining or state standards. Prop D takes away rights San Franciscans have held for 125 years: to put citizen initiatives on the ballot. Robbing it away. San Francisco was the first California city to have this right. Now, wealthy tech billionaires are spending millions to take it away. They would quadruple the signatures required from 10,600 to 42,500, a limit so high only the very wealthy can reach it. Follow the money. Wealthy interests can afford to pay one million dollars to collect 42,500 signatures. Neighborhood groups, labor unions and community advocates will be priced out. We'll lose our voice in the democratic process. 10,600 signatures is tough and fair. Since 1932, around 10,600 signatures have been required to qualify a measure. It's not easy: citizen-initiatives are only 15% of all ballot measures. But when City Hall ignores us, citizens have the power to act. A check and balance. 42,500 signatures is out of reach. It will be impossible for citizen-led, grassroots organizations to qualify a measure. After 125 years, it will silence the voices of some San Franciscans forever. Citizens' initiatives make a difference. They have increased the minimum wage, ensured large corporations pay their fair share of taxes, provided legal aid for renters facing eviction, banned corrupt contributions to politicians, passed Sunshine laws, established rent control, and funded schools, childcare and affordable housing. After 125 years of direct democracy, don't let them rob it away. Vote NO on D.
