

SFAC Galleries
Summer 2026 Exhibition

Mentorship and Exhibition Fellowship

Kelley Finley

Tricia Rainwater

Shirin Makaremi

Shirin Makaremi is an Iranian-American artist and curator based in San Francisco, California. Makaremi is the former Director of Incline Gallery in San Francisco, where she curated and facilitated exhibitions and programs. She enjoys working with emerging local artists, collaborating and supporting them to take a leap with their practice. Makaremi has worked with a number of Bay Area organizations, such as Zamin Project, Southern Exposure, SF Camerawork, and SOMArts. Makaremi, received her BA from San Francisco State University in Studio Art and Art History.

