Revised SFPD Form 142

DGO 6.09, Domestic Violence, was adopted by the Police Commission and is effective XX/XX/XX. As such, SFPD 142 Special Victims Follow Up & Resource Guide has been updated from its last version in November 2019. SFPD 142 has been revised to align with the updated DGO and Manual and includes the following changes:

- New section about victim rights related to Protective Orders.
- New section with important information for victims about obtaining case information and incident reports, a strangulation warning, victims' rights to an advocate and support person during interviews, the DA's right to file a criminal complaint, and a confidentiality advisory.
- New section with 24/7 victim services including QR codes.
- This revised form replaces the need for SFPD Forms 105 and 369 for DV calls.

Form SFPD 142 has been revised and translated into Spanish, Chinese, Russian, Vietnamese, and Tagalog. Members shall immediately begin use of the new SFPD 142 and recycle outdated forms. A copy of the revised SFPD 142 is attached to this Department Notice and can be located in the desktop file "SFPD Forms" and in the PowerDMS folder titled "Forms." The facilities coordinator at each district station or unit can pick up copies of SFP 142 at the print shop in the basement of the HOJ, 850 Bryant Street, or order them with your supplies order.
