Written comments will be part of the public record. To guarantee consideration, all written comments must be received by CMD by 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, April 2, 2026.

The scope of comments on this subject is intended to be broad. The public is encouraged to address not only the specific draft rules as formulated below, but the general subject matter that each rule addresses. The public is further encouraged to suggest alternative rules concerning these subjects. There is no guarantee that the final rules adopted by CMD pertaining to these subjects will track the draft rules posted by CMD. The purpose of receiving comments is to fully inform CMD so that the final rules adopted will be reasonable and well founded.

Inquiries concerning the proposed Rules or the public comment process may be directed to:
