

Make an Emergency Plan

Disasters can happen when you're not together. Plan ahead so you and your loved ones know what to do, where to go, and how to reconnect.

This plan is for

Choose a group of friends and family who you want to coordinate with.

Our meeting spot

Choose locations that are near where you will most likely be. Open spaces, like parks, make good meeting spots because they are away from buildings, trees, and power lines that could become hazards. Choose locations that are easy to reach without a car, simple to describe, and easy for everyone to remember.

MEETING SPOT 1 _____

If a disaster happens during work hours

MEETING SPOT 2 _____

If a disaster happens while we are at home

Emergency contacts

Other numbers that would be useful in an emergency.

To report a PG&E gas leak call 1-800-743-5000.

Out-of-area emergency contact

Calls out of San Francisco are more likely to go through when networks are damaged. Choose a trusted friend or family member who lives in a different region who can help relay information and coordinate. Reach out to them once you're safe at home or at your meeting spot to report your status and location.
