RE: Request for Proposals 100 - Weekly Update #2

Dear RFP 100 Applicants,

The Human Rights Commission (HRC) is committed to providing an update every Friday until a new Notice of Intent to Award is issued for Request for Proposals 100 (RFP 100). This is the second update. Future updates will be shared via email and online. All updates will be available at HRC's Funding Opportunities page.

Updates

The following are actions that HRC has taken since the last update:

- Improving communications: HRC has launched a new FAQ page for RFP 100, available at this link: <https://www.sf.gov/information--human-rights-commission-funding-opportunities>. This page will be updated regularly as we continue to make progress.
- Evaluation Panel Review: Staff are reviewing the process for the evaluation panel review of all proposals to ensure a competitive, transparent, consistent, and fair process. Also, staff are actively planning for the recruitment and assignment of proposal reviewers. HRC, in partnership with the Department of Children, Youth, and Their Families (DCYF), will design and facilitate training for all reviewers prior to the beginning of the evaluation panel review.
- Timeline: HRC anticipates sharing a revised timeline for the review process with all applicants by Friday, August 8.

Background

On Tuesday July 22, 2025, HRC announced that the RFP 100 Notice of Intent to Award is rescinded, and that HRC will revisit the entire evaluation process of RFP 100. This decision was not made lightly. It was informed by community feedback and a commitment to strengthening the integrity of our evaluation process.

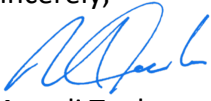

HRC is not accepting new proposals, and applicants who submitted their proposals by the original deadline are not required to take any action at this time. All proposals submitted by the original deadline will be reviewed and scored again, according to the revised protocols for review, evaluation, and rating.

Thank you for your continued partnership, dedication, and service to community.

The next update will be shared on Friday, August 8.

Sincerely,

Mawuli Tugbenyoh
Acting Executive Director
