On May 6th, 2026, the San Francisco Police Department will be hosting a Vehicle Theft Abatement awards ceremony at the San Francisco Yacht Club located at 99 Yacht Road, in San Francisco. After the award ceremony, the department will host a luncheon for the attending qualified SFPD officers who are award recipients, their families, and other SFPD members, such as commanding officers of the award recipient, along with members of the California State Automobile Association (CSAA) and California Highway Patrol. The California State Automobile Association has graciously offered to pay for this venue and luncheon for a total amount of $9,926.16 directly to the San Francisco Yacht Club. The San Francisco Yacht Club will provide a Lunch Buffet Style luncheon for approximately 100 people.

I e-mailed Sergeant Maureen Leonard assigned to the Operations Bureau 10B / PLES department to ensure the California State Automobile Association (CSAA) is not a funded or restricted Source. Sergeant Leonard looked at the department's records and 10B vendor list and confirmed that California State Auto Association (CSAA), Jason Willett from CSAA or CSAA Insurance Exchange has not received 10B services during the 2023-2024 Fiscal Year or 2024-2025 Fiscal Year.

In preparation for the last Vehicle Theft Abatement Award Ceremony that took place on April 16, 2025, San Francisco Police Departments Chief Financial Officer Kimmie Wu and I, had an e-mailed communication with Deputy City Attorney Jen Huber to ensure there were no ethics issues with acceptance of this gift from the California State Automobile Association to the Vehicle Theft Abatement award luncheon. On April 2, 2025, Huber responded via e-mail, confirmed that there are no ethics issues with acceptance of this gift. Noting, if any SFPD Form 700 filers attend the award ceremony, they would need to ensure compliance with their reporting obligations if the value of gifted food and beverage exceeds $50.

I respectfully request this matter be placed on the Police Commission's agenda for acceptance of this generous gift.
