The Art on Market Street Poster Series is a project of the San Francisco Arts Commission and the San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency.

The San Francisco Arts Commission acknowledges that we are on the unceded ancestral homeland of the Ramaytush Ohlone. We affirm the sovereign rights of their community as First Peoples and are committed to supporting the traditional and contemporary evolution of the American Indian community and uplifting contemporary indigenous voices and culture.

BUDGET

- Total Artwork Budget: $52,000
- Artist Contract: $17,000
Artist Contract will be for design only, and is inclusive of all artist's fees, as well as associated expenses for design and consultation during fabrication and installation.
- Implementation Allocation: $35,000
Vinyl fabrication, installation, maintenance, and deinstallation will be managed by SFAC under separate contract.

PROJECT GOALS

- Artwork will emphasize the importance of the sharing of knowledge and wisdom in all forms across generations from an Indigenous perspective.
- Artist will have a meaningful connection to and/or direct experience collaborating with Indigenous communities in the development and implementation of their previous artwork design(s).
- Artist will partner directly with the Association of the Ramaytush Ohlone on the development and implementation of the artwork concept and final design.
