    b. YC Resolution Training
        i. Presenter: YC Staff

Specialist Ochoa presented a training on how the Youth Commission writes resolutions on issues they find important.

8. Committee Business (Discussion/Action)
    a. 2026/27 HRT Committee Priorities

Specialist Ochoa opened up the conversation with a list of all of the priorities that each of the HRT members have expressed so far, and asked if there's any additional issues that they'd like to focus on for this term.

Commissioners agreed that their will include: Housing (affordable housing for families, youth homelessness, family-sized housing development incentives, addressing encampments near youth areas, historical preservation); Recreation (park maintenance, park accessibility, slow streets program, public trashcans); Transit (Free Muni for All Youth program, sustainable funding for transit, address transit overcrowding and pass-ups, free BART for youth + other transit benefits, bike infrastructure, addressing poor street conditions); and other issues (construction of data centers, street safety and open drug use).

b. Community Organization Assignments

Specialist Ochoa discussed how each Commissioner is expected to find a CBO that aligns with their interest and begin working with them. Commissioners took time to research organizations they are open to working with.

Commissioners Sarceno Bravo and Law chose the San Francisco Transit Riders, Commissioner Segall chose MyPath and Seamless Bay Area, Commissioner Collins-Howze chose the District 9 Youth Council and Mission Access SF, Commissioner Connell chose the San Francisco Bike Coalition, and Interim Chair Shulman chose the Homeless Prenatal Program.
