WHEREAS, Under her stewardship, Friendship House has served more than 6,500 clients through their 80-bed SUD treatment program in San Francisco and 9-bed treatment program in Oakland, providing a path to recovery rooted in cultural identity and dignity, including cultural programming, advocacy, and vital community support for the San Francisco Bay Area's American Indian community; and

1 WHEREAS, Helen Waukazoo's influence and leadership through Friendship House
2 and beyond ensured that San Francisco's urban Native American community remained

10 communities often underrepresented in the City's physical landmarks; and

11 WHEREAS, Helen Waukazoo's long-held dream was the creation of the Village SF, a

14 urban Indians; and
