FILE NO. 261060 RESOLUTION NO. 558-26

[Calling Special District Election - Public Transit Revenue Measure District - Consolidation of Elections Scheduled for November 3, 2026]

Resolution calling a special district election for the Public Transit Revenue Measure District; and authorizing consolidation of the following elections, all of which will be held on November 3, 2026: the State of California General Election; the City and County of San Francisco Municipal Election; the Bay Area Rapid Transit District Election; the Public Transit Revenue Measure District special election; the San Francisco Unified School District Board of Education Election; the City College of San Francisco Governing Board Election; and providing that the election precincts, voting places, and officers for these elections shall be the same as for the State General Election.

WHEREAS, The State of California will hold a general election on November 3, 2026, for the purpose of voting on candidates for federal and state offices, as well as proposed state ballot measures to be submitted to the voters; and

WHEREAS, The City and County of San Francisco will hold a municipal election on November 3, 2026, for the purpose of voting on candidates for local office and proposed local ballot measures to be submitted to the voters; and

WHEREAS, The Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) District will hold a district election on November 3, 2026, for the purpose of voting on candidates for the BART Board of Directors, and requested that the district election be consolidated with the State of California General Election scheduled for the same date; and

WHEREAS, The San Francisco Unified School District will hold an election on November 3, 2026, for the purpose of voting on candidates for the Board of Education (School Board); and

WHEREAS, The San Francisco Community College District will hold an election on November 3, 2026, for the purpose of voting on candidates for the Governing Board of the Community College District (Community College Board); and

WHEREAS, Government Code, Section 67740, requires that if the Public Transit Revenue Measure District or a qualified voter initiative proposes a measure for the approval of a tax ordinance adopted pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 67730), the Board of Supervisors for each of the counties that comprise the district, which includes the City and County of San Francisco, shall call a special election on the tax ordinance; and

WHEREAS, The Public Transit Revenue Measure District has called for a special election on November 3, 2026, for the purpose of voting on a Regional Transit Measure, and requested that the special election be consolidated with the State of California General Election scheduled for the same date; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors believes that it is in the best interests of the public that these elections be consolidated, as authorized by law; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors calls for a Public Transit Revenue Measure District special election to be held on the Regional Transit Measure; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That pursuant to California Elections Code, Sections 10400 et seq., the State of California General Election; the City and County of San Francisco Municipal Election; the BART District Election; the Public Transit Revenue Measure District special election; the School Board election; and the Community College Board election shall be consolidated; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the voting precincts, polling places, and officers of the elections set forth in this Resolution shall, in every case, be the same; that there shall be only one set of election officers in each precinct, to wit, the election officers to be appointed by the Director of Elections for each precinct; that all candidates, ballot measures and bond proposals shall be set forth on the ballots provided for said election; that the elections shall be held in all respects as though there were only one election, and that all returns shall be canvassed by the Director of Elections as provided in the California Elections Code.
